

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Scott Ingram is the founder and apostolic overseer of Sozo Ministries International, a church planting and leadership training ministry working in the USA, Uganda, and Kenya. He currently lives in Mbale, Uganda with his wife, Liz, and their three children.

Scott holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Biblical Studies from Arlington Baptist College, Arlington, Texas. He is licensed for ministry by the Apostolic Network of Global Awakening, and is also a member of Global Awakening's Association of Healing Ministers.

You can find out more about Scott at www.AnthonyIngram.com. You can find out more about Sozo Ministries at www.SozoMinistries.net.

Jacqui Dowdy is the founder and overseer of Isaiah 61 Mission, an evangelistic and equipping ministry based in Uganda. She also manages Isaiah 61 Mission's 'Restoration House', a ministry training facility and conference centre in Nakaloke, Mbale, Uganda. She and her husband, David, have been missionaries in Uganda since 1993. David is involved in community development; and they have both travelled widely throughout East Africa, and beyond, carrying out their various ministries.

Jacqui has a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Brunel University, UK; and has also trained as a nurse/midwife, and primary school teaching.

She was originally trained in evangelism and follow-up by the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, where she worked as a volunteer for several years. She also holds a Diploma in Discipleship and Biblical Studies from International Accelerated Missions.

Sozo Ministries International and Isaiah 61 Mission are both official ministry partners with Living Water Ministries' Global Outreach.
