An End To Another Year      2021-2022      A Beginning To Another Year

In recent years, I have ended the year by beginning a project.

One to be released on the first of the new year;

A writing project that will more than likely become a book.

In 2021, I developed and polished a few projects, and brought out a blast from the past, but I ended the year more focused on recommendations for music listening. Why?...Who am I? Nobody. But, if music speaks to you as it does to me, you might be interested.

My Top Twenty Albums lists are written from one standpoint only:

If you have never heard music ever,

or

If you want to start to understand the emotions of the human condition, then

I have some music recommendations for you.

Opening and Opening, Too are closed to additions at the end of 2021. (Under "More" from desktop.)

A Distant Recollection will stay open to further journal entries.

I have plans for Life.
