Fri morning
Dear Jack:

We got your letter yesterday and we were so glad to hear from you.
as mom was kinda worried she didn't hear from you mon or Tues or wed. But I told her that it was because you werent in camp over the weekend. How's the weather up there Jack. Its surely cold here it was 8° above zero yesterday and its still plenty cold today yet. Wed. we had a real blizzard and Bay did that wind blow. you could hardly see where you were going. Joe is getting along alright now, but he cant go out yet. His still awful weak, and if the weather doesn't get milder I'm afraid he'll have to be home for some time yet. He's getting discussed already. Well!

Jack I'm still on the jury.
Today is my last day & am I glad. I asked them to excuse me or else I'd have to sewe next week
yet. I wouldn't mind but they only pay you 3.00 a day and at that rate I lost quite a bit of money this week. It wasn't bad tho, you don't have to get here until 9:15 and you get $1\frac{1}{2}$ hrs for lunch and at 3 or 3:30 you can go home.
I was only called on one case all week and then we didn't have to give a verdict as they settled it out of court. This morning they had an air raid alarm here and we all had to pile out and go on another floor until the all clear was sounded. It sure was exciting. Not much news around here jack. The same old story. Billy & a boyfriend went to the Almeri last nite. They had (Holiday Inn) and Marie & Em went over to Emulip. Josephine went to Club at Babes house.

And Mom & I were home alone we just spend a quiet evening around the fire. As it sure was cold out. I worked for a while for mom. Zoultte Josephine &

I are going over to see aunt Catharine. She come home from the hospital Wed. She's still, quite weak.
I only hope she'll be alright now. I feel so sorry for her. You know she had a radium treatment and it cost $200.00. That's some price alright. Well Jack. let us know if you want us to send you some more underwear. As mom is worried that you'll catch cold if you take the one suit off to have it laundered.

I'll close for ~~now~~ now with love from us all.

Mom says Hello to you
Jack. Your Sis Ann.
we told Billy to write to you.
