Sunday note.

Dear Jack:

Well! here it is Sunday again, the weeks sure do fly by. We got your letter yesterday and were so glad to hear from you and say by the way, you sure wrote a nice letter. Mom said "Say that boy sure knows how to write a nice letter, he puts it together so nice" You see we never knew how smart you really were. We're glad you're getting along so well at camp. That's swell, keep up the good work. Mom got the $5.00 back. So the next day which was Fri I called up the Press and ordered the paper for you for 3 months. It was $2.50 for the 3 months. And if you get moved to another camp I'll call them up & give them your change of address. I told them to send it to you at once. Let us know when you get it. We don't know how much the telephone call was yet. We didn't get the bill yet. We'll let you know when we do. Mom was so glad to talk to you over the phone she said you sounded so close. She said she appreciated it so much she wouldn't give it for $10.00. mom is sitting out here by the kitchen table as im writing and she said you should take good care of yourself. Mom said that financial condition is about the ^{same} we just about get along. Food is even higher than when you were home. we cant get hardly any meat anymore we had pork for dinner that's the only thing mom could get. It snowed all nite last nite about 3 inches & its 10° above zero and to nite there's a blizzard out.

Joe is still at home and will be for another wk or so. He recovered a chair for Barb last week to pass the time.
Barb brought it over to his house.
Billy went to waters yesterday afternoon and stayed all nite. He isn't home yet and its now 9:30. Maue & Em went a show downtown this afternoon.
And they aren't home yet either. And Josephine went to meet ^{Crown} Cas he's going back to Buffalo tonite by train. So mom and I are home alone. Our family sure is getting small. Mom went in to see Aunt Therese at Lutheran hospital this afternoon, she's there under observation.
Aunt Therese Uncle Joe Aunt Josephine Therese Aunt Catharine & Uncle Frank all send their best regards to you. They always ask about you and say you should take care of yourself. Mom said she'll send you another pr of long underwear soon.
Well Good-bye Jack Mom sends her love and God bless you & keep you.
