Hi Jack:

I send your long underwear today and yesterday I mailed a box for you for Xmas jack. Let us know if you get these things and also in what condition.

There were cookies in the box too, that I send yesterday and here I forget to put a (Fragile) sticker on. So I only hope they're not all broken up. Let me know how you received them also when. Hope you get it in time before Xmas. and we all wish you wouldn't open it until at least Xmas eve as that will make the day seem more festive.

That's pretty nice about you fellows singing Carols Xmas. It should sound pretty good.

Jack it looks like I'll have to close for now - ma sends her love and also love & Best Regards from all of us. (ma)

That is if all the fellows voices are as good as yours, eh?

We had Club at Barb's last nite.
She served fruit salad on lettuce leaves Crackers & Cheese cake & Coffee.
I won 2nd prize 30 $. big cash eh?

Ma said I should be sure and thank you for the money Jack she said it was just like a miracle.
She was supposed to pay on the house and she was wondering where she would get the money from.
she was just 10.00 short and here your letter came with the money in. She would probably have borrowed some from me if you hadn't send it. She'll have it a bit easier when she starts getting money from the government.

Jack you should see the snow outside about 4 in, a real old fashioned, Xmas (a white Xmas) if it doesn't melt till next week.

Aunt Theresa came home from the hospital Tues. Ma was over there today she & Aunt Josephine washed for her. We had sourkrout & neck bones for supper tonite. It was good. Well
