Dear Jack:

Mom got your letter day before yesterday and she's glad you're feeling O.K. as yet. So you're driving a truck now eh? Well, I do think that's a lot better than a motorcycle myself. How do you like it?

Ma is feeling O.K. now, her Arm feels a lot better. I only hope she doesn't fall again. There's more people getting hurt like that this year. Its been so icy lately. It was bad again this morning. Josephine & I practically crawled to work this morning.

It snowed last nite and it turned to rain during the nite. It sure makes going tough. Jack how's the press coming thru - O.K.? also, do you read Ernie pyle's articles We've been reading it and it's very good. He's with the troops in Africa.

Maion went back to Canada yesterday at noon.
Her train left at 12:30.
Lucy drove her down to the station and Ma went along.
They stopped in to see Aunt Theresa for a few minutes on their way down. Aunt Theresa has been feeling pretty good and she's been up doing most of her cooking etc.

and now she's beginning to feel it again. I guess she just shouldn't have to work anymore. I've got such a bad cold in my head that I feel miserable. I'm going right home from the office and go to bed. Its almost 12 bells and I had a few minutes so I thought I would write to you.

So your female mail is increasing. Thats swell - do you hear from Angela Caynes Cousin or niece or whatever she is? Also do you hear from the girl you used to go with? I think her name was Mary - I bet it keeps you busy doesnt it?
Oh well! such popularity must be deserved - what say - Well! Jack do you know the bell just rang and its time to hit for home and I surely aint sorry.

I dont feel a bit good. a cold sure can get you down. Have you had any colds so far Jack?
Josephine just told me that she wrote to you too, so our letters will probably be duplicates.

Too bad - well so-long Jack.

a big Hello from Mom and all of us.

Love from your sis Anna
