Dear Jack:

We received two letters from you yesterday. One dated the 23rd and one the 24th so you can see how slow the mail is. As soon as we got your first letter telling us to write, I wrote to you. We got the letter on Tuesday & I wrote & mailed one to you on Wednesday which I hope you have by now.

Aunt Katherine isn't feeling so well Jack. Today she is having a rest. Mom called her up yesterday and gave her your best regards.

Jack, Kennist, that fellow from the office, is leaving next Saturday. He is in the Army too now. Crover & I are going to a farewell party on his route.

Well Jack there really isnt much news. Arnold left Friday noon and Joe is feeling a lot better. Mom is feeling pretty good too.

Billy Kennedy came over last nite & drained the water out of your car & the old Chev. Mother asked Agnes to send Jimmy over but he wasn't home so Billy came. Incidentally he's going to drop you a line some time. He asked me for your address.

Jack we're sending the underwear hangers etc. today. I hope you get them soon. Marie wrote you a letter last nite which I suppose you have by now, and I guess she told you that Mom could only find one pair of underwear & one pair of socks. If the Army won't give you any, or can't fit you, let us know & we'll buy some & send them to you O.K.?

Take care of yourself Jack & go to Church every Sunday. Mom was glad to hear you went to Confession & Communion. - Billy says "Hello".

Love
Your Sister
Jose

P.S. About that Camera Jack. You'll get it for Christmas O.K.?
