Dear Jack:

Just a line to say "hello".
How are things at Camp Lee?
And how are you Jack? We are all pretty well. Mom's O.K. now. Ann, though, has a bad sinus cold. The rest of the family however is O.K. + that includes the Davises, Westfalls
and the Leary Jr. family.

Well, Marion left yesterday
noon + so now we settle back to normal living again, or something.
What I mean is that when she was here we had to move or less entertain her but anyway
it was nice seeing her + she's an awfully swell person. She gave Mom $8.00 when she left.
Mom didn't want to take it but she just insisted. Also she gave Billy $1.00 and

IV

Lucy a $1.00 too for driving her down to the station.

Incidentally Jack Mom got herself a couple of new dresses with that money you sent her. So you can see it was put to good use 'cause Mom sure needed some new clothes. All she really had was that black dress from the funeral.

Jack, we're having a Mass said for Pop on Tuesday, the 19th, and another one, an Anniversary Mass, said on Sunday March 21st. Mom wanted it said on the 25th which will be a year that Pa died but the masses were all taken so it's to be on the 21st.

Well Jack what's new with you? Not much here. Chuck is going to be in town next week again and of course I'm glad of that. - So that girl from Marie's office is writing to you regularly. That's swell. How does she seem? Nice?

Listen Jack don't worry about not writing to me. Just like I told you over the phone it's O.K. Just as long as you write to Mom that's all we ask; and write her often as she waits for your letters.

By the way Jack did you get the cigarettes yet? And did you get the nuts Marie sent you? We haven't forgotten about the gloves etc. Jack ya'll get them too.

Well it's almost time for the bill Jack so I'll say so long for now.

P.S. Write to your sister
mom "Jose"
