Dear Jack -

How are you & what's new?

Not much doing here. Mom is O.K. again, thank goodness.

Craven is off again this week so I've been pretty busy although he still doesn't have a car.

It sure seems funny to go by streetcar, but this is War & we have to make the best of it. I got my Xmas gift finally. Two pieces of luggage, the overnite bag & the wardrobe case & it's really beautiful. Well worth waiting for. It must have cost plenty. Craven had it made by some man who does that kind of work & that's why it took so long.

How's the weather there

Jack? It's pretty cold here & very damp. In kind of looking forward to the good old Summer time.

So you finally ^{got} a Christmas Gift from the girls eh? We were kind of "mad" that they waited this long to send it Jack but I guess they were planning on getting you a Camera & the last minute it fell through. Anyway their heart was in the right place, & it's better late than never I guess.

Jack I planned on sending you one of those leather kits to put your toilet articles in, but I priced them & found out they cost $6.00 & I just wondered whether it would be worth that much to you.

I mean I'd ~~be willing~~ like to get it for you if I thought you'd get a lot of good out of it. Let me know what you think. Maybe you'd rather have something else in place of it?

Aunt Theresa & Aunt Katherine are feeling pretty well these days. As well as can be expected anyway. They send their best regards.

Mom says "Hello" & "take care of yourself". She also told me to tell you to be sure & go to Mass every Sunday & Holyday.
She also said to be careful of the company you keep.

I can't think of anything else to write about Jack so will close for now — Love

P.S. Billy received your sister the Scrapbook & was very glad you sent it. Love
