Dear Jack-

I've been wanting to write you all week but I've been on the go so damn much I just didn't get to it - and Craven wasn't in this week either. Anyway Jack how have you been? We are all o.k. again including Joe.

Mom said you called last nite. Too bad none of us were home but anyway you talked to mom who, of course, is the important one. She was glad you called Jack. I was at Club meeting last nite. It was a Ellen's house on Ignatius Ave. She still lives with her mother & Dad; and incidentally her husband is now in '1-A'. So maybe he'll be leaving before long. Craven hasn't heard anything as yet but I suppose it will be any day now for him too. Oh well - nothing you can do about it.

Wish you could get a furlough Jack before you get moved. - I saw wish this war would end, "but quick".

Mom + Ann + I are supposed to go to see Aunt Theresa's tonite so will give her + Uncle Joe your best regards.

Sunday afternoon Theresa + Irene Syabo are coming over to the house + Ann + I are going bowling with them. I haven't bowled for quite some time so I'm kind of anxious to go. Do you fellows ever do any bowling Jack or are you usually too tired?

The weather here is very cold today. In fact the windows at home were all frozen this morning. I wish it would turn warmer soon tho. I'm a little sick of this cold weather. How's it been in Virginia lately? Cold too?

Well, Jack, can't think of anymore news to write about so I'll say good bye for now

Love
Your sister
"Jose"
