

Town is now called Sanou in th Czech Republic - At time of this birth was Austrian Empire - Located 30 miles north of Vienna
TRANSLATION FROM GERMAN

No. 183

Land: Moravia

Diocese: Brünn (Brno)

County: Znaim

Deanery: Erdberg

Certificate of Birth and Baptism

Imperial and Royal
District Office: Joslowitz

From the Register of Births and Baptisms of this Parish,
Volume III, page 92, it is parochially certified that in the Year of Grace:

Parish: Grafendorf

One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Two (1862) on January 20th there was born in the village of Schönau House No. 12 and baptized by Parish Priest Joh. Eigner on January 21st according to the Roman Catholic rite

Name of Child to be Baptized	Religion	Legitimate, illegitimate Daughter or Son	Father: Christian and Family Names, Residence and Religion, and his Father's Christian and Family Names, Occupation and Residence, and Mother's Christian and Family Names	Mother: Christian Name, Religion (whether married, single or widowed), and her Father's Christian and Family Names, Occupation and Residence, and Mother's Christian and Family Names	Godparents Name and Occupation	Midwife
[Documentary stamp for 50 kr dated 1885]  Maria	Roman Catholic	Legitimate daughter	Leopold Leisz [illegible] in Schönau, the son of Leopold Leisz [illegible] in Schönau and of Katharina, née [of] Maximilian Geppert, his wife	A. Maria, daughter of Simon Schmied, cottager, in Schönau, and of Theresia née [of] Mathias Werner, his wife	Johann Herzobet, [illegible], in Schönau, and Susanna, his wife	Antonia Marbl, No. 16 of Grafendorf

In witness whereof, the undersigned has signed in his own hand and affixed his seal of office.

Issued in Grafendorf on November 14, 1885.

[Partly illegible Church Seal in Latin]

[Sgd.] Wilhelm Kaliword
Parish Priest

This is the Place of Origin For the Leisz Family - Birth cert. for Maria's brothers John + Leopold were also from here. - This shows 2 more generations from this City as well

