Sunday Afternoon.

Dear Marie:

I must now take a minute of my spare ~~and~~ write you a few lines.

Well how is the world using you these fine spring days? Its using me fairly good I can't complain.

I ~~would~~ ~~hope~~ you were beginning to think that I have forgotten all about you but I haven't I have been writing ~~all~~ to you for the last six months but to-day I thought I wasnt going to put it off no

more.

Are you having many good times? I don't suppose you are going to any dances now are you? I go to quite a few shows I am going to-nite, Oh Marie I wish you could be here so we could go to-gether how nice it would be. I wonder how long it will be before we can see each other again I am going to try and come to see you sometime this summer or are you coming out here again I heard Barbara was coming this spring is she? Oh I only hope she will I would like to see her so much. I sure would like to see all of you.

I had my picture taken the other day, if they will be any good I'll send you one. maybe two. ~~and~~

See it's so dreary out to-day looks like rain it has been so warm lately just like spring the snow is going fast. I do wish it was summer already but it "Won't be Long Now" That's a new song.

I am all alone to-day Sophia is coming over she ought to be here now.

I don't know any news so will close for this time

Love to all

A. C. Minichroper

P.S. Say Marie whatever you do don't wait so long to write as I did. I'll see that it never happens again.
