Hi! My name is Steve Pazur Pazur, and I would be delighted if I could tell you about myself!

For my entire life, I have lived the life of a ✓ "relatively" normal human.

The moon is a great place to live - 117 Crater Lane, ✓

✓ Base 9, to be exact. I can do most things as well as anybody else -

fall asleep, complain, and walk without using my knuckles. ^{✓x} Everything is different on the moon - in fact, you have to take an ^{✓x} adaptability test before moving there. Technology has advanced 100%. ^{✓x} Can you believe that food, and almost every thing around you has a mind of its own! ^{✓x}!?
Pots, pans, clothes - they all have unique ^{✓x} personalities.

My couch can be aw-fully cranky sometimes. But I still haven't gotten yelled at by a can of pop.

When I took my vacation back to Earth, I climbed Mt. Everest - my friend wanted a challenge, so he climbed it in a hurricane.

Not me, though. He still doesn't know that I found out - he's really an alien terrorist spy (ATS). Ha! That's why he survived Mt.

Everest in a hurricane!

Now you know why he's not really my best friend!

Five people I do not know personally are Bob Marley, The Great Krinkleb Keish, Gandolf the Grey, the Easter Bunny, and Chief Wiggum. ✓x

I don't necessarily want to meet them, I just had to say that. ✓x

The Moon is great - especially with no gravity, but it's nothing like canoing in Minnesota. It is called the land of ten-thousand lakes. I took a vacation there when I was 12.

I canoed all day in complete peace, and serenity.

Well, I can't complain.
Sure, the moon rocks - if you know what I mean!
But the adventurous part of me seeks a change.

I think I'll move to Saturn. ✓X
