Policies

Deposit. A non-refundable deposit of $350 is due within 10 days of receiving your acceptance email. [The deposit is applied toward the total program fee.] Please pay via PayPal to bebel_chavin@yahoo.com and select the "Friends and Family" option; otherwise, PayPal will charge a fee.

Balance. The remaining balance is due by bank transfer no later than four weeks before the program begins. When a session is full and there is a waiting list, we may ask for immediate payment of the full balance to confirm your place.

Cancellations and refunds. Once the field school has started, no refunds will be given for early departure. Please take this into account when applying, and review the accommodation and living conditions on our website: <http://www.proyectoHuariancash.org/projects.html>

Certificate and credits. All participants receive a certificate of completion for 100 hours of field and laboratory work. Participants may also receive 3 semester credit units through our academic partner, the Universidad Nacional Santiago Antúnez de Mayolo, a state university and the largest in the Áncash region. Credits are issued only on request; after the field school ends. Please confirm with officials at your home institution before attending field school, that these credits are accepted.
