*We invite you to rest here in the arms of the divine...
...to feel the connection, to feel the belonging, to feel that you have a place among us. You belong in our story.*

GREETING & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ken Maurer

Good morning and welcome to Coleman Memorial Chapel! We are glad you have chosen to join us today as we have worship and time for fellowship. I open our service with the following scripture from Psalm 24:1, "The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, the world, and those who live in it; for He has founded it on the seas, and established it on the rivers."

PRELUDE & LIGHTING OF THE CANDLES

Rev. Sally Ott

*CALL TO WORSHIP (from Psalm 24)

The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it!
From the east to the west, from the north to the south,
God's Spirit moves across the face of the earth.
From the east to the west, from the north to the south,
We gather, united by God's Spirit, to celebrate God's glory!
From the east to the west, from the north to the south,
Let's worship God together!

*OPENING HYMN "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah" Blue #281

*PRAYER OF ADORATION AND CONFESSION

Almighty God, our Lord and King, we thank You and praise You for creating us in Your image and for Your purposes. We confess that most of us risk perishing from too much bread rather than too little. Forgive us when our lack of a daily need results in daily neglect of You. Today we pray for another chance to appreciate the fullness of your love and find joy in serving your interests, in the name of the light of our world, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Please take a moment for private prayer to make your own confession.

*Please stand if you are able.

Please mute your phone.

No food in the sanctuary.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Friends, beloved of God, we are brought from death into new life in Jesus Christ. He is at the right hand of God, gaining our forgiveness and assuring our redemption. Thanks be to God for this good news! And let everyone say...Amen!

WE BRING OUR GIFTS TO GOD & PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

We do not pass the plate for collection, instead a plate may be found on the front table.
