RULES & REGULATIONS

General

1. The Society has for its objects the promotion of the interests of industry in general, and for agricultural and kindred crafts in particular, and of the public health. The Committee reserve to themselves power to withhold or modify any of the premiums where exhibits in their, or the opinion of the Judges are not of sufficient merit or where there is no competition.
2. A separate entry must be made for every prize competed for.
3. Entries to be submitted in writing.
4. The violation by any Exhibitor of the Rules and Regulations will involve the forfeiture of all premiums awarded to him, or such portion thereof as the Committee may determine, and shall also be in the power of the Committee to debar such exhibitor from competing at any future Exhibition of the Society.
5. No responsibility will be incurred by the Society or it's Stewards or Servants for any loss or accident that may befall and Person or Exhibit on the Showfield. Every possible care and attention, however, will be bestowed on all exhibits.
6. Protests must be lodged with the Secretary by 1pm on the day of the show, and the decision of the Committee appointed to determine these shall be final.
