

Review Questions for Tic Tac Toe - Group 1 (Answers are bolded)

Divide kids into two groups – Xs and Os.

Put a large tic tac toe board on the white board.

Ask a question (decide who goes first – X or O) and if they answer correctly, they can choose where to put their X or O. This can be done as a team or individuals. If they can't answer the question, ask the same question of the other team. If they get it right, they choose where to put their X or O. If neither team can answer, give them the answer, but no one puts a letter on the board. First team with 3 Xs or Os in a row, wins.

1. Who are you (in relation to God)? (This can be done as 3 answers – they don't have to be done in a row – can be mixed up, asking the same question to different teams.)
 - a. A child of God
 - b. A member of His Church (Catholic)
 - c. A son or daughter of a great King

2. What does it mean to be blessed?
 - a. God loves you and gives you gifts

3. When you 'count your blessings' what are you filled with?
 - a. Gratitude
 - b. Joy

4. What was the first Sacrament that you received?
 - a. Baptism; (do you know when and where you were baptized? Ask your parents to share the story of your baptism.)

5. What Sacrament are you preparing for now?
 - a. Reconciliation

6. What happens at Reconciliation?
 - a. We all sin sometimes and when we do, we get separated from God. This makes us unhappy. When we go to reconciliation, our sins are forgiven and our hearts and souls are filled with joy because we are no longer separated from God.

Review Questions for Ball Toss - Group two (Answers are bolded)

Sit in a circle. Toss the ball to someone in the group. Where ever that persons left thumb lands on the ball is the question they must answer. If there's no question there, they can get a pass, or you can have them answer the question closet to their thumb. If they can't answer the question, ask if anyone else can answer and then toss the ball to the next person – any where in the circle.

7. What is a sin?

- It's when we do something we know is wrong and do it anyway.
- It's not an accident or a mistake – these are not sins, because we didn't mean to do them or didn't intend what happened

8. What other Sacrament are you going to receive this year?

a. Eucharist

9. Can you name the other four Sacraments? (Baptism, Reconciliation and Eucharist)

- a. Confirmation
- b. Marriage
- c. Holy Orders
- d. Anointing of the Sick

10. What are two ways we can thank God for all our blessings?

- a. By being grateful
- b. By sharing our blessings

Additional questions: Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Eucharist, Confirmation; Sacraments of Healing: Reconciliation, Anointing of the Sick; Sacraments of Service: Matrimony (Marriage) and Holy Orders
Go to confession when you've sinned and want forgiveness and to be closer to God.

First Sacrament – Baptism – can only be baptized once

Can receive Eucharist – once a day. Receive Reconciliation – as often as you desire
