

What is Summer Stretch? Summer Stretch is a community service and recreation program done in conjunction with parishes around the city. The program begins and ends each day at Blessed Sacrament Church. In the mornings, we will dive into community service work including Feeding South Dakota and Black Hills Works. Then after a strong morning of service, we will relax with a recreational activity including WaTiki Waterpark and Robbinsdale Bowling. The program concludes with an overnight campout Wednesday afternoon through Thursday afternoon at Sheridan Lake. Come and be a part of the action!
