Key Responsibilities:

- Greet and assist customers in a friendly and professional manner.
- Provide information about the farm, lavender products, and their uses.
- Operate the cash register, process transactions, and handle money accurately.
- Stock and organize products on shelves, ensuring the store is neat and presentable.
- Assist with visual merchandising and display setups.
- Support the team with sales goals and help promote special offers or events.
- Participate in maintaining a clean and safe store environment.
- Learn about farm operations, product creation, and the local agricultural industry.
- Help manage online orders and packaging as needed.
- Communicate effectively with customers, farm staff, and other apprentices.

Qualifications:

- Must be at least 16 years old.

- Interest in agriculture, sustainability, and local products is a plus.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Strong communication skills and a positive attitude.
- Ability to learn new skills and take initiative.
- Previous retail, customer service, or farm experience is a plus, but not required.
- Must be available to work weekends, holidays, and during special farm events.

Benefits:

- Gain hands-on experience in a small business environment.
- Learn about agriculture, lavender cultivation, and farm-to-market business practices.
- Flexible work schedule.
- Opportunity to work in a supportive, community-focused environment.
- Employee discounts on farm products.

To Apply:

Interested candidates should submit a resume and a brief statement of interest to Amber at info@gleninnish.com. Applications will be accepted until March 31, 2025.
