By [C] yon bonnie [Am] banks and by [Dm] yon bonnie [G] braes,
Where the [C] sun shines [Am] bright on Loch [F] Lo[G]mond,
Where [F] me and my [C] true love were [Dm] ever wunt to [F] gae,
On the [C] bonnie, bonnie [F] banks o' Loch [Dm] Lo[C]mond.

Oh, [C] ye'll take the [Am] high road and [Dm] I'll take the [G] low road,

And [C] I'll be in [Am] Scotland a[F]fore [G] ye,
But [F] me and my [C] true love will [Dm] never meet a[F]gain
On the [C] bonnie, bonnie [F] banks o' Loch [Dm] Lo[C]mond.

'Twas [C] there that we [Am]parted in [Dm]yon shady [G]glen,
On the [C] steep, steep [Am]side o'Ben [F]Lo[G]mon',
Where [F] in purple [C] hue the [Dm] Hieland hills we [F] view,
An' the [C] moon coming [F] out in the [Dm] gloa[C]min'.

Oh, [C] ye'll take the [Am] high road and [Dm] I'll take the [G] low road,
And [C] I'll be in [Am] Scotland a[F]fore [G] ye,
But [F] me and my [C] true love will [Dm] never meet a[F]gain
On the [C] bonnie, bonnie [F] banks o' Loch [Dm] Lo[C]mond.

The [C] wee birdies [Am] sing and the [Dm] wild flowers [G]spring,
And in [C] sunshine the [Am] waters are [F] slee[G]pin',
But [F] my broken [C] heart it [Dm] kens nae second [F] spring,
Tho' the [C] waefu' may [F] cease frae their [Dm] gree[C]tin'.

Oh, [C] ye'll take the [Am] high road and [Dm] I'll take the [G] low road,
And [C] I'll be in [Am] Scotland a[F]fore [G] ye,
But [F] me and my [C] true love will [Dm] never meet a[F]gain
On the [C] bonnie, bonnie [F] banks o' Loch [Dm] Lo[C]mond.
