

The Parting Glass

artist: Almost all the Irish and Scots

Traditional

Of [Am] all the [F] money that [C] e'er I [G] spent
I've [Am] spent it [F] in good [C] compa- [G] ny
And [Am] all the [F] harm that [C] e'er I've [G] done
A- [Am] las it [F] was to [Am] none but me
And [C] all I've [G] done for [C] want of [G] wit
To [F] memory now I [C] can't re- [G] call
So [Am] fill to [F] me the [C] parting [G] glass
Good [Am] night and [F] joy be [Am] with you all.

If [Am] I had [F] money e- [C] nough to [G] spend And [Am] leisure [F] time to [C] sit a- [G] while There [Am] is a [F] fair maid [C] in this [G] town
That [Am] sorely [F] has my [Am] heart beguiled.
Her [C] rosy [G] cheeks and [C] ruby [G] lips
I [F] own she [C] has my [Am] heart enthralled
So [Am] fill to [F] me the [C] parting [G] glass
Good [Am] night and [F] joy be [Am] with you all.

Oh, [Am] all the [F] friends that [C] e'er I [G] had They're [Am] sorry [F] for my [C] going a- [G] way
And [Am] all the [F] sweethearts that [C] e'er I [G] had They'd [Am] wish me [F] one more [Am] day to stay.
But [C] since it [G] falls un- [C] to my [G] lot
That [F] I should [C] rise and [Am] you should not I'll [Am] gently [F] rise and [C] softly [G] call
Good [Am] night and [F] joy be [Am] with you all,
Good [Am] night and [F] joy be [Am] with you all.
