

SAFEGUARDING POLICY

Commitment to Safety

1. Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club (the 'Organisation') works actively to prevent harm and promote the welfare of all children that we interact with (i.e. as Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's clients). This Safeguarding Policy applies to individuals referred to as 'Beneficiaries'.
2. The Organisation is committed to ensuring the safety and well-being of all the Beneficiaries, free from discrimination based on age, disability, race, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other protected characteristic.
3. This Safeguarding Policy adheres to the latest safeguarding laws of England, Wales, Northern Ireland, and Scotland, including relevant government guidance. If there is any conflict between this Policy and these laws, Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club will always prioritise upholding the legal requirements.
4. Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club has implemented this Safeguarding Policy in fulfilment of its obligations as an organisation working with children.
5. For questions about this policy, please contact Caroline Marchant in the first instance, via e-mail Caroline@fabricdreamstheatre.co.uk or via phone 07800664127.

Safeguarding Policy Scope

6. This Policy applies to everyone working for or representing Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club in the UK, regardless of position, employment type (full-time, part-time, temporary), or affiliation (direct employee, contractor, volunteer, intern; collectively 'Staff Members').
7. This Policy is separate from employment contracts. To ensure its effectiveness, Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club may revise the Policy at any time. We will communicate any changes transparently.
8. This Policy outlines Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's approach to harm prevention for its Beneficiaries through Staff Member's conduct and practices.
9. This Safeguarding Policy applies to the organisation and operation of all Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club activities that involve children (i.e. Relevant Activities).

These primarily include:

- a. Drama club for children aged 4 and up

Safeguarding Definition

10. The term 'Safeguarding' refers to practices and procedures designed to protect vulnerable individuals from harm or potential harm. It also promotes their overall well-being. Safeguarding is particularly crucial for children and adults at risk, with most legal obligations related to their care. This Policy specifically addresses child safeguarding, defining children as individuals under 18 years old (in England, Wales, and Northern Ireland) or under 16 years old (in Scotland).

11. This Safeguarding Policy outlines Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's commitment to protecting its beneficiaries from harm caused by:

- a. Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club activities, practices, and the potential for harm arising from the conduct of its Staff Members, or
- b. People and situations beyond (Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club) and its Staff Members' control. This includes instances where Staff Members are aware of, ought to be aware of, or reasonably suspect a situation that poses a safeguarding risk.

12. This policy defines a 'Safeguarding Concern' as any conduct or situation that a Staff Member or someone else suspects might violate the safeguarding commitments above.

How Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club Protects Its Beneficiaries: Key Safeguarding Measures

13. Prioritising child safety by following local safeguarding arrangements. These comprehensive plans, developed by local authorities, police, and healthcare providers, offer valuable leadership and guidance to ensure children's well-being.

14. All Staff Members will receive training on identifying and reporting safeguarding concerns. Also, Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club encourages them to report any Safeguarding Concerns they identify (set out below under the heading 'Procedures: Reporting').

15. We create a safe, accessible, fair, and efficient space for all Staff Members to raise safeguarding concerns (colleagues, beneficiaries, or anyone else involved). We expect all staff to listen attentively and professionally. Training will equip Staff Members to support those raising concerns and guide them through Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's established reporting procedures. All reported concerns will be handled by designated individuals and teams following Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's relevant procedures (detailed below under 'Procedures: Investigation and Response').

a. Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club has fair and objective procedures to address all safeguarding concerns, even when they involve Staff Members. Allegations are taken seriously, with the severity of the claims considered throughout the process. We are committed to protecting all parties involved. This means we will only presume guilt or publicly criticise people once a thorough investigation is completed.

b. Reports that qualify as protected disclosures under whistleblowing law will be handled with the utmost confidentiality and following all relevant whistleblowing policies law.

16. Caroline Marchant is designated as the lead for safeguarding policies and procedures within Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club.

17. Following appropriate recruitment processes for all new staff members, including volunteers. These processes include:

a. Conducting pre-employment checks following relevant regulations.

b. All new Staff Members must take part in, and understand the content of, all necessary safeguarding training before having any contact with Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's Beneficiaries. This training equips them with the knowledge and skills to keep everyone safe.

c. Following Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's staff recruitment and selection procedures.

18. Every Staff Member should be provided with, and required to undertake, training that is appropriate to their role, responsibilities, and degree and type of contact with Beneficiaries. This should, if appropriate, include training on:

a. Identify and respond to abuse by recognising signs of physical, emotional and sexual abuse, neglect, and exploitation.

b. Learn active listening skills and how to navigate disclosure of safeguarding concerns, including confidentiality.

c. Follow reporting procedures by understanding when and how to report concerns using Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's established procedures.

d. Stay informed by discovering additional resources like policies, documents, and external training to stay up-to-date on safeguarding best practices.

19. Treating all safeguarding information with the utmost confidentiality and security. This involves:

a. Complying with UK data protection legislation, including The UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

b. Following Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's data protection policies and procedures.

c. Providing Staff Members with training on data protection and privacy, if appropriate.

d. Making easy to access Caroline Marchant, who can be contacted by emailing Caroline@fabricdreamstheatre.co.uk or at 07800 664127 for Staff Members as an identifiable point of contact for questions or concerns about data protection and privacy.

e. Sharing safeguarding information internally ONLY on a strict need-to-know basis to ensure the best possible care for the beneficiary involved.

20. Building a safe environment by creating a culture of transparency and awareness to prevent harm. For example:

a. Encourage open communication by informing beneficiaries about Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's safeguarding procedures and how to report any concerns.

b. Acknowledge by the Staff Members of safeguarding laws, Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's safeguarding commitments and procedures, and Staff Members' responsibilities concerning these.

21. Regularly reviewing all safeguarding policies and procedures to ensure that they are up-to-date with safeguarding law and that they remain suitable for Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's Relevant Activities and workforce, and meeting any review and evaluation requirements specific to Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's industry and organisation type.

Staff Members' Responsibilities

22. All Staff Members are responsible for promoting the safety and well-being of all of Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's Beneficiaries by following all of Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's policies and procedures relevant to safeguarding and all UK laws relevant to safeguarding. Specifically:

a. All Staff Members at Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club play a role in keeping Beneficiaries safe and every role will be covered in detail during training. In case of doubt, it is important to contact Caroline Marchant to clarify any aspect of roles and responsibilities.

b. Encourage all Staff Members to actively participate and ask questions if anything is unclear to Caroline Marchant.

c. Do not risk the safety or well-being of any of Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's Beneficiaries by avoiding any of the next situations:

i. Subjecting them to or facilitating abuse of any sort.

ii. Engaging in any sexual activity with children (i.e. anybody under the age of 18).

iii. Participating in or facilitating any activities that may commercially exploit Beneficiaries. For example, failing to report suspected child labour or trafficking.

d. Staff Members must report all Safeguarding Concerns that they have regarding Beneficiaries' safety, regardless of whether the concerns relate to potential wrongdoing of other Staff Members, other Beneficiaries, or external parties (e.g. parents, teachers, other organisations, or members of the public).

Procedures: Reporting

23. To ensure the safety of Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club Beneficiaries, Staff Members will be trained to recognise potential safeguarding concerns like abuse, neglect, and threats to well-being.

24. Staff Members who identify a safeguarding concern should report it following the next steps:

a. Bring concerns to the attention of Caroline Marchant, who will take the necessary action.

25. Staff Members unable to follow the standard reporting steps should still report the concern in another alternative way. This may be the case if, for example:

a. Contacting someone potentially involved in the concern, or someone the Staff Member feels uncomfortable approaching, or

b. In emergencies involving a risk of serious harm, contact emergency services (e.g. police, ambulance, mental health crisis line) directly, or, if appropriate, report the concern to a senior member of Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club's staff.

Procedures: Investigation and Response

26. All Reported Safeguarding Concerns at Fabric Dreams Theatre: Rising Stars Drama Club are treated seriously and addressed promptly by trained personnel following the established procedures and relevant laws. For more details about these procedures, please contact Caroline Marchant.

27. We aim to keep Staff Members who report a Safeguarding Concern informed about its progress as much as possible, depending on the nature of the concern and the confidentiality of the investigations.

28. In case of breach of this Safeguarding Policy or safeguarding law in general by a Staff Member, they will be treated fairly and will only be dismissed if appropriate in the circumstances and in accordance with employment law.

29. External referrals or notifications (e.g. to police services, local authorities, or regulatory bodies) will only be made when deemed necessary and strictly following applicable laws, including data protection regulations, to ensure the safety and well-being of Beneficiaries.

Safeguarding Policy: instructions for use

After completing the Safeguarding Policy, follow the instructions below to ensure proper implementation and compliance.

Review the Safeguarding Policy

Ensure that your Safeguarding Policy includes all necessary information:

- Contact details: Include names, addresses, and contact information of designated safeguarding officers.
- Scope and purpose: Clearly define who the policy applies to and the reasons for its implementation.
- Definitions: Include definitions of key terms such as abuse, neglect, and safeguarding.
- Procedures: Add detailed steps for reporting and responding to safeguarding concerns.
- Training requirements: Outline the training that staff and volunteers must undertake.
- Confidentiality: Define rules for handling sensitive information related to safeguarding.
- Review schedule: Add a timeline for regularly reviewing and updating the policy.

Distribute the Safeguarding Policy

Once the policy is finalised, ensure it's distributed to all relevant parties:

- Staff and volunteers: Provide a copy to everyone within the organisation who has contact with children or vulnerable adults.
- Stakeholders: Share the policy with any external partners or stakeholders involved in your activities.
- Digital platforms: Make the policy accessible on the organisation's website and internal intranet.

Implement the Safeguarding Policy

Conduct mandatory training sessions for all staff and volunteers to ensure they understand the policy and know how to implement it.

Clearly communicate the policy's importance and the procedures for reporting concerns to all members of the organisation.

Establish clear and accessible reporting mechanisms for safeguarding concerns, ensuring confidentiality and prompt action.

Maintain records of the Safeguarding Policy

Keep thorough records to ensure compliance and for future reference. Store the policy securely, either in physical form in a locked file or digitally in a secure system.

Ensure the policy is easily accessible to all members of the organisation and for compliance checks.

Safeguarding Policy: instructions for use

Record any changes or updates to the policy, ensuring that all revisions are signed off by the appropriate authority.

Retain records of the policy and any related documents for a minimum of 6 years, or longer if required by law.

By following these steps, you can ensure that your Safeguarding Policy is effectively utilised, protecting the rights and well-being of all individuals under your organisation's care.
