CLIENT FEEDBACK

I was impressed with Jaye's presentation and her direct and creative responses to questions.

Jaye is an effective communicator, shares her personal experiences in a constructive approach, and is a supportive team builder. She has a big smile and encourages people to ask questions, get involved, and really hears what they want to communicate.

Ann E. Teske, PhD, (retired advanced practice nurse)
Chair of Involvement and Action in CPW

Jaye opened up about the dedication and passion she brings to supporting children in foster homes, providing mentorship, resources, and guidance to help them navigate the challenges they face.

She also shared personal stories of how her own family dynamic has influenced her mission, and how fostering love, care, and support has shaped her approach to helping others. Jaye's commitment to making a difference is not only admirable but inspiring to anyone looking to create positive change in their communities.
