Afro-Peruvian Jazz Orchestra: Where Big Band Meets Perú

Experience the electrifying fusion of jazz improvisation and Afro-Peruvian rhythms with the Afro-Peruvian Jazz Orchestra (APJO). This 20-piece Los Angeles-based ensemble ignites stages with their unique sound, weaving together traditional Peruvian melodies with the energy and complexity of jazz.

More than just music, APJO is a cultural exchange. Founded by Peruvian composers and woodwind players Anibal Seminario and Lorenzo Ferrero, the orchestra celebrates the rich heritage of Afro-Peruvian music, bringing its vibrant rhythms and passionate spirit to the world.
