Market Pulse & Investor Perspective

Key News That Moved the Markets in Aug

- ✓ Resurgent GDP Growth Surpasses Expectations
- ✓ Consumer Sector Emerges as Sole Beacon Amid Broad Market Weakness
- ✓ Escalating U.S. tariffs spark market turmoil
- ✓ Massive FII/FPI outflow hits markets hard

What It Means for Long-Term Investors

- External shocks often trigger short-term volatility, but strong domestic growth fundamentals continue to support India's long-term story.
- Sector resilience (like consumer demand staying strong in August) shows that selective opportunities exist even during market-wide weakness.
- GDP growth at 7.8% signals India's economic engine is still robust, which favors equity investors with a multi-year horizon.
- Periods of heavy foreign outflows often create attractive entry points for disciplined investors.

Investor Education

Inflation: The Silent Thief—Here's How to Stay Ahead

Groceries, fuel, education—prices never seem to stop climbing. That's inflation, silently reducing your money's power. At 6% inflation, a good-priced ₹100 today will need ₹179 just 10 years later.

Now here's the problem: bank FDs usually give 5–6%, and after tax, the real return is even lower. In short, your money feels "safe," but it's barely keeping pace with rising prices.

The smarter way forward? Let part of your savings work harder. Equity mutual funds, over time, can outpace inflation. Add debt for stability and gold for protection, and you've got a balanced plan to stay ahead.

"Don't let inflation quietly eat into your savings."

Don't let inflation eat into your future—blend safety with growth.

Understanding Mutual Fund Categories

Focus Category: Multi-Cap Funds

• Definition: Equity mutual funds that invest across large-cap, mid-cap, and small-cap companies, with a minimum of 25% in each category.

• How it works: Unlike Flexi Cap funds that freely shift allocations, Multi Cap funds must maintain a balanced exposure to all three market segments.

• Who it may suit: Investors seeking diversification across the market spectrum, without depending on a fund manager's allocation calls.

• Considerations: More exposure to mid- and small-cap stocks means higher volatility. Suitable horizon: 5+ years.

Track Record:

Category	Plan	Returns (%)
		3 Months	6 Months	1 Year	3 Years	5 Years	10 Years
Equity - Multi Cap Fund	Regular	0.04	15.28	-3.4	18.63	22.53	14.82

Multi-cap funds may suit investors who want a disciplined spread across large, mid, and small caps in a single fund.

Case Study/Investor Story

A Dream Passed On, A Dream Fulfilled

Ankita screamed with joy and hugged her father. Tears rolled down Rajesh's face as his daughter secured admission to her dream foreign university.

For Rajesh, this was more than just a proud moment—it was the completion of a circle. As a young man, he too had dreamt of studying abroad, but his family couldn't afford it. That unfulfilled dream stayed with him, and he quietly resolved that his child would never have to face the same heartbreak.

From the day Ankita was born, Rajesh began saving through a systematic SIP in mutual funds. The amounts were small in the beginning, but he stayed consistent and increased his savings as his income grew. Over the years, this discipline has built a strong education corpus.

Today, when Ankita steps onto foreign soil to chase her dreams, Rajesh feels nothing but joy and gratitude. What was once his missed chance has now become his daughter's shining opportunity—all because of patient, goal-based investing.

My dream may have been incomplete, but my daughter's will fly high.

Start early, save consistently—because dreams don't wait, but money can be ready when they arrive.

Financial Wisdom for Smart Investing

Teachers' Day – Money Lessons Worth Remembering

- Be consistent—small steps daily add up.
 - Don't copy others blindly; understand before acting.
 - Save before you spend, not after.
 - Patience is the secret ingredient for wealth.
 - Tests come unannounced—keep an emergency fund.
 - Revision matters review your financial plan throughout the year just like exam prep.

Your money can become your best student—if you teach it discipline.

Contact and Closing

Quote of the Month:

"An investment in knowledge pays the best interest."

- Benjamin Franklin

Closing Note:

As we celebrate Teachers' Day, let's carry forward the lessons of discipline, patience, and lifelong learning into our financial journeys. Remember, the markets may move up and down, but steady investors who stay the course typically come out stronger. May this month bring you both wisdom and progress toward your goals.
