Before You Come:

- Read over our Term and Conditions
- Please ensure items you bring are brands we accept please see: Acceptable Brands PDF
- Do your homework on the items you are bringing in.
- Print off / fill in contract & intake sheet and bring with you to drop off.
- Bring your items in a bag/bin clearly labeled with your name and phone number.
- Do not bring items on hangers.
- We accept consignment 5 days/week, Tuesday - Saturdays
- We only accept / consign items at our Fort Saskatchewann location
- All items must come freshly laundered & lint rolled. De-pill and lint roll any animal hair or fuzz off your items. Wipe down all shoes, wallets, purses & hats.
- Please check your items for wear, pilling, holes, snags, scents & stains. Most common stains are around the collar, sleeves, crotch area & arm pits areas.
- Please ensure your items are in current season at the time of drop off
  March - July / Spring - Summer | August - September / Fall | October - January / Winter

When You Come:

- We will quickly go through your pieces to make sure all items match your intake sheet.
- You will sign a contract agreement.
- You will leave the items for Country Chic Inc. to go through & decide if items will be accepted. (We antipcate this to take approximately about 1 week)
- We will let you know what we will price your items at, or if items need to be picked up. Any pricing concerns should be dealt with at this time.
- Consignment terms are 3 months from the time items are dropped off.
- Once your term is over you can choose to have unsold items returned to you or donated.

Pricing:

- Prices are determined based on original retail, style, condition, demand & resale value, which will be determined by Country Chic Inc. staff.
- Consignees receive 50% commission on items sold.

Pay Outs:

- Payouts are processed at the end of each month.
- All payouts are paid out by e-transfer by the 15th of the month.
- If none of your items sold, you will not receive a transfer / or any type of notifcation.