

GLOBAL LEADER IN CORRECTIONAL PERSONNEL DEMENTIA TRAINING AND CORRECTIONAL PERSONNEL DEMENTIA UNIT CONSULTING

Managing aging inmates with dementia is a proven difficult task. Medical expenses have an expansive rate of 3 to 9 times higher than others who are unaffected within the incarcerated population. Those diagnosed must be protected from predatory inmates due to affliction of paranoia and or confusion which can be exacerbated by confinement of prison; some have been known to have history of attacking staff members or other inmates.
