

Chief Justice's Court

Case :- WRIT - C No. - 36779 of 2016

Petitioner :- Savita Devi

Respondent :- Indian Oil Corporation Ltd. And Another

Counsel for Petitioner :- Akalank Kumar Jain, Jitendra Kumar Shishodia

Counsel for Respondent :- Prakash Padia

Hon'ble Dilip B. Bhosale, Chief Justice

Hon'ble Yashwant Varma, J.

Heard and Sri Akalank Jain, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Prakash Padia, for the respondents.

This petition assails an order dated 4 July 2016 in terms of which the application of the petitioner for award of L.P.G. Distributorship has come to be turned down by the Indian Oil Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the Corporation). The reason assigned and so recorded in the order is that the proposed land offered by the petitioner for the purposes of establishment of distributorship was not at the advertised location. The advertised location, it may be noted, was Shahjanpur Block Sarsawa, District Saharanpur.

Learned counsel for the respondent placed before us a photocopy of the application form submitted by the petitioner along with its enclosures. From a perusal of the same it is apparent that the lease deed which was enclosed with the application form was in respect of land situate at Village Jharauli Mustkam, Pargana Sultanpur. Learned counsel for the Corporation has further referred to the application submitted by the petitioner herself on 30 May 2016 in which she admitted that she did not have land at the advertised location Shahjanpur (Sarsawa), District Saharanpur.

In view of the above, we find no error in the order of the Corporation impugned herein. The writ petition is consequently dismissed.
