I am indeed blessed that I have enjoyed a richly diverse forty-eight-year professional career in nursing. In addition to teaching, lecturing, and nursing practice I have had the opportunity to be a member of mobile medical teams internationally. Now retired I can share lifelong experiences through my propensity for writing. I discovered in my mother's preserved family archives that I had been writing creatively since grammar school. Now, with my nursing years behind me and after successfully publishing three books over the last seven I am humbled when officially introduced as an author.

It is my privilege to share my stories with you.

WHEN DUFFY SMILES The Adventures of Duffy The Canine Angel. As described in my press release (to follow), Duffy is a very real dog who, by his very personality, inspired this project. However, as I thought about the subject, I knew that this would also be an opportunity to remind readers in the powerful omnipresence of a loving God who, despite the tumultuous pressures in today’s world, guides and protects us. I am hopeful that individuals and families will find inspirations to share through the gentle messenger of a canine angel. Perhaps even those who cannot see God in their world will be inspired by a canine connection.

"SOUL FUSION HEALING: Integrating Mind, Body, and Soul"

My work — Soul Fusion Healing — integrates astrology, psychology, and energy awareness into a practical framework for transformation. It's based on the idea that healing begins when the soul, mind, and body are brought back into harmony.

Through this process, people awaken to their purpose, shift subconscious patterns, and create a healthier, more conscious life. As the author of Soul Fusion Healing: Integrating Mind, Body, and Soul, I explore how ancient wisdom and modern science meet — revealing how our astrological blueprint and subconscious programming work together to shape our reality.

With heart-wrenching candor, Jeanne describes how, with the generosity of friends and family and the unconditional love of her two boys, she was able to put the broken pieces of her life back together, in the end discovering that from tragedy can come disguised blessings.

Jeanne Callahan works as a real estate agent and massage therapist.

“ TILL HEIST DO US PART ”

Jeanne Trantel’s life was perfect—or so it seemed. She had it all: a loving husband who worked on Wall Street, two beautiful, healthy sons, and a dream home in the affluent Long Island community where she grew up, surrounded by friends and family. But then, with one phone call, the life she knew and loved came crashing down around her. “Your husband,” the caller said, “is in custody for a series of bank robberies that have occurred all over Nassau County.” Jeanne would soon discover that her husband, Stephen, was living a lie. He was no longer the Wall Street trader that Jeanne, his family, and his friends all thought him to be. Instead of heading to Wall Street each morning as he claimed, Stephen was robbing banks. In Till Heist Do Us Part, Jeanne chronicles the human toll of this ripped-from-the-headlines true story. Consumed by anger and humiliation and faced with mounting debt and piles of unpaid bills, Jeanne entered what she describes as the “darkest time” in her life. But Jeanne’s story is not a tragedy; it is a story of hope and redemption, of faith, love, and the power of forgiveness.
