“Mindset: Open Your Mind to New Possibilities”

My book helps people understand that to really follow Jesus Christ you must develop a new way of thinking. Romans 12:2, “Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind”. I give examples of my own transformation, and how readers can if they desire can transform their thinking. I use the scriptures, because the word of God is alive and will help a person develop that new mindset and have their thinking come in line with Jesus Christ who is the word of God.

“ DON'T READ THIS YOU MIGHT LEARN SOMETHING!: ESPECIALLY ABOUT YOURSELF ”

Don't Read This Activity Book is a companion guide designed to help you explore your thoughts and feelings. It includes activities and questions that might spark your curiosity as you figure out why you feel the way you do.

They say the only things guaranteed in life are death and taxes. How you live depends mainly on your choices—unless you're in the wrong place at the wrong time. Life is like a roller coaster. It has ups and downs, and sometimes unexpected turns that can be scary and exciting simultaneously. Hopefully, your good days are more than your bad ones.

Remember the quote by Nietzsche: “What doesn't kill me makes me stronger.” When you feel like giving up or like life is too hard, keep this in mind—it's better to live for something than give up for nothing. Find something worth living for. Be brave, face your challenges, and believe in yourself. You can get through anything.

Robert Bohannon, PhD

Robert Bohannon, PhD, is a research scientist and Christian author of more than 50 published books who writes stories for anyone who's ever needed God to meet them in the broken places. In Rifts of Grace and No Greater Love, he brings to life characters shaped by loss, love, and the kind of mercy that doesn't just comfort—it transforms.

Nominated for a national award, Bohannon writes with a voice that is both tender and unflinching, pointing readers to the truth that grace is not fragile, and love—when anchored in Christ—can outlast even the darkest chapters.!!

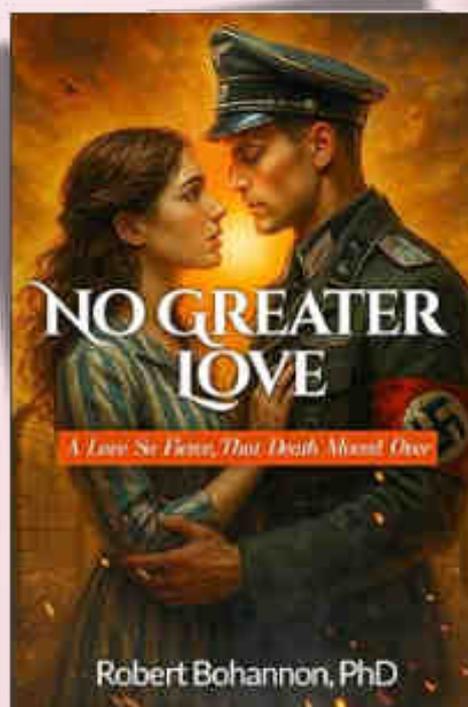

“ No Greater Love: A Love So Fierce, That Death Moved Over ”

Set against the gathering storm of World War II, No Greater Love follows Hannah Bohmer, a young Jewish woman whose ordinary life in Poland is shattered as Nazi occupation closes in. The story carries her from the tightening net of fear and loss into the brutal machinery of the camps, where everything is designed to strip identity, dignity, and hope. Yet Hannah’s inner life does something unexpected: it doesn’t disappear—it deepens.

Inside the worst of human cruelty, she becomes a quiet center of courage, learning how to keep people human when the world is trying to turn them into numbers. Along the way, her path collides with Lukas, a German soldier whose conscience is not dead, only buried under duty and fear. Their connection is not a simple romance; it’s a collision of souls—two people trapped on opposite sides of a nightmare, both forced to choose what kind of human they will be when there’s no safe choice left.

The book moves toward survival—but not the sentimental kind. Survival here is costly, complicated, and holy. The ending turns toward rebuilding and remembrance: the fragile work of learning peace again, and the fierce insistence that suffering does not get the final word.

“ Rifts of Grace: Where Science and Faith Intersect! ”

Rifts of Grace begins with Ethan Carter, a scientist whose trust in God has been replaced by trust in equations. He works on a breakthrough project involving a “Rift”—a controlled tear in time—believing he can step into history and prevent suffering. His destination is ancient Jerusalem, near the events surrounding Jesus’ crucifixion—an impossible intersection of science and sacred history.

But time is not a clean machine. Ethan’s intervention doesn’t bring salvation; it fractures reality. When he returns, the present is altered in terrifying ways—his own life rewritten, the world reshaped, and history bent by one unintended consequence: Ethan realizes he carried disaster with him. The more he tries to “solve” the problem, the more he confronts the deeper truth—this isn’t just a time-travel crisis; it’s a heart crisis.

The story accelerates toward a final reckoning where Ethan’s intellect can’t rescue him. What restores what was broken is not control, but surrender—an encounter that reframes everything he thought power was. In the end, the Rift becomes more than a scientific tear in reality; it becomes a spiritual opening where grace enters the places human hands can’t fix.

David Pinkston is a U.S. Army 10th Special Forces veteran, engineer, and lifelong seeker of God's truth, whose discovery of Scripture at age 44 transformed his understanding of faith and purpose.

His first book, To Open One's Eyes: Untaught Mysteries of the Holy Bible, inspired readers to challenge tradition and rediscover the living Word.

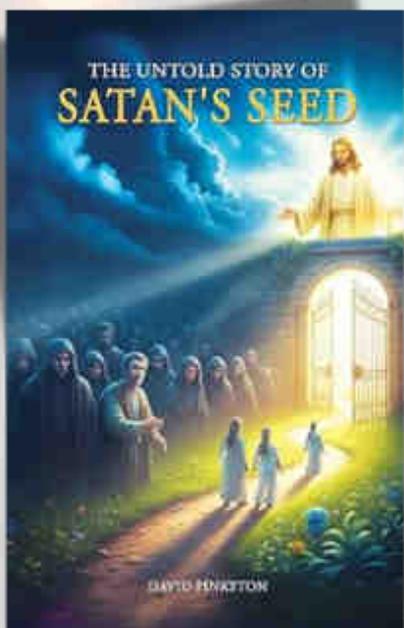

With the discipline of a soldier and the conviction of a servant, Pinkston writes not to preach but to provoke thought, to help others see biblical truth. His mission is simple: to lead readers back to Christ through the power of unfiltered truth.

Author's website:

“The Untold Story of Satan's Seed ”

In The Untold Story of Satan's Seed, Pinkston reveals one of the most misunderstood truths hidden within the Bible. He uncovers how deception quietly took root in the early church and continues to shape what millions believe today. With Scripture as his only guide, he exposes centuries of misdirection inviting readers to test everything against the Word of God.

Taken from the King James Bible, Pinkston shows how faith, truth, and salvation have been entangled by human doctrine and how believers can return to the unshakable foundation of Christ Himself.

This is not about religion. It is about God's truth.

- The "End of the Age" explained.
- The feelings of God about the world today
- False religions, including the Catholic Religion

How do cultural traditions shape the way we love, lead, and live—and how can we break free from the ones that hold us back? On this thought-provoking episode of DAILY SPARK TV, Dr. Angela Chester interviews David Sequeira, Ph.D, author of The Machismo and Marianismo Tango, to explore the complex dance between gender roles, cultural expectations, and personal empowerment.

Machismo, the male ideal so specific to Hispanic culture, is complemented by its corollary marianismo, the female ideal. Both are examined in this careful study, along with the Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder that so often accompanies-and, in fact, overhangs-the lives of the women who have survived the abuse that machismo too often inflicts.
