My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

“The Eucharist is God’s response to the deepest desire of the human heart; the hunger for authentic life. In the Eucharist, Christ Himself is truly in our midst, to nourish, console and sustain us on our journey.” -Pope Francis @pontifex

The Brother Box/Coffee and More

There are those in our community who sometimes need a little help. The Brother Box/ Coffee and More funds have been very helpful in supporting our Parish to help meet this need. The box is located in the front of the church on the left in front of the choir loft. The biggest needs recently are for people who have emergency medical appointments and do not have the money to buy gas to get there, and for travelers or others who are hungry and need some assistance. We are grateful for your support.

Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Most holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore Thee, I love Thee and with lively sorrow for my sins, I offer Thee this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to Thy will. Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in Thee and for Thee. Protect me in the midst of danger; comfort me in my afflictions; give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, Thy blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Within Thy Heart I place my every care. In every need let me come to Thee with humble trust saying, Heart of Jesus help me. Amen

Following up on last weekend's World Children's Day with Pope Francis in Rome...

What family activity is a proven "saint-maker"?

We all want our children, godchildren, and grandchildren to grow into faithful men and women. But it's difficult to know exactly how to help them get there, especially when the culture around them often spreads a conflicting message.

This is not a new challenge in the history of the Church, however. And there is a simple practice your family can take up that is a known saint-maker: reading Scripture together. St. John Chrysostom urged his followers to immerse children in the Word of God. He said: "Let everything take second place to our care of our children, our bringing them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord."

And this is exactly what a famous family of saints did. St. Thérèse of Lisieux grew up in a deeply devout family where reading the Bible was a cherished daily routine. Each night, her parents, Sts. Louis and Zélie Martin, would gather Thérèse and her siblings together and read to them from Scripture.

St. Thérèse credited this family activity as one of the most formative practices of her childhood. To St. Thérèse, the words of the Bible were more than just stories; they were seeds planted in her heart, seeds that would grow into an unwavering faith.

Reading Scripture together also provides an opportunity for meaningful family discussions. It allows parents to address their children's questions about faith and life and to offer guidance rooted in the wisdom of the Bible.

So, let us gather our children, open the Bible, and read together. In these moments, we invite God into our homes and hearts, allowing His Word to guide us, comfort us, and unite us in faith.
