

Rhythm Coin Whitepaper

Where Music Meets Web3 — and Every Holder Becomes a Headliner

1. Overview

Rhythm Coin (RHYTHM) is a decentralized music token built on Solana, designed to rewire the connection between music, creators, and blockchain. It empowers musicians and fans through Music NFTs, direct ownership, creative liquidity, and an evolving Web3 ecosystem. No middlemen. Just beats, blockchain, and community.

2. Vision

In a world where music is often locked behind paywalls or controlled by major platforms, Rhythm Coin opens up a space where every artist can monetize, every fan can participate, and creativity flows like sound. We're building a new system of value — powered by community, utility, and the blockchain beat.

3. Core Features

Music NFTs

- Artists mint, sell, or share tracks, stems, loops, and full projects.
- NFTs unlock direct engagement and revenue with zero intermediaries.

Token Utility

- RHYTHM is used for minting, staking, governance, and community rewards.
- Holders access exclusive content, beat packs, remix rights, and production tools.

Creative Liquidity

- Stake NFTs and RHYTHM to unlock new tracks, tools, or royalty rewards.
- “Purrformance Royalties” reward plays, shares, and remix traction.

Music Distributor (Coming Soon)

- Artists will soon be able to distribute their music across Web3 and traditional DSPs.
 - NFT ownership will power smart revenue splits and royalties on-chain.
