Laura Fox, is an Associate Broker, and her license hangs with Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices – Arizona Properties. The BHHS brand is internationally known and unites the strength of industry leaders, bringing together unparalleled operational excellence, innovation and integrity. You can be assured of working with the finest real estate companies and sales associates around the globe.

We partner with American Escrow and Closing Company for expense management, IRS and policy compliance, and home sale programs. Our relationship with First State Mortgage, Guardian Mortgage, & Prime Lending allows us to offer preapprovals, competitive programs and discounts in all 50 states.

Our household goods moves are managed through Relocation Management Resources (RMR). This relationship brings you and your client's competitive rates with individual attention, which provides a better overall moving experience. RMR manages a high volume of moves for a variety of clients including McDonald's, Kraft, Pitney Bowes, etc. They are able to leverage this volume to demand consistently high quality service from each of their carefully selected vendors. This results in executive-level service for each customer, whether they represent a large group of corporate-sponsored moves or an individual moving across town.
