

Siouxland Coalition to End Homelessness Continuum of Care Program Standards
For CoC and ESG Funded Rapid Re-Housing Programs
Approved by Siouxland Coalition to End Homelessness on

The Siouxland Coalition to End Homelessness Continuum of Care developed the following Rapid Re-Housing Program standards to ensure:

- Program accountability to individuals and families experiencing homelessness,
- Program compliance with HUD rules,
- Program uniformity, adequate program staff competence and training, specific to the target population being served.

DEFINITIONS:

Family: Family includes, but is not limited to, regardless of marital status, actual or perceived sexual orientation, or gender identity, any group of persons presenting for assistance together with or without children and irrespective of age, relationship, or whether or not a member of the household has a disability. A child who is temporarily away from the home because of placement in foster care is considered a member of the family. See 24CFR§ 5.403.

Homeless (ESG-Funded): an individual or family must demonstrate at initial evaluation they are literally homeless under one of the two following categories included in the Homeless Definition Final Rule:

- Literally homeless (Category 1):
 - Living in a public or private place not meant for human habitation,
 - Living in temporary shelter, which includes congregate shelters and transitional housing, or
 - Exiting an institution where the individual or family has resided for 90 or fewer days and was living in shelter or in a place not meant for habitation before entering the institution.
- Fleeing or attempting to flee domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or other dangerous or life-threatening conditions (Category 4) AND meet the definition of literally homeless.

Homeless (CoC-funded): and individual or family may be defined as homeless under any of the following categories included in the Homeless Definition Final Rule:

- Literally homeless (Category 1):
 - Living in a public or private place not meant for human habitation,
 - Living in temporary shelter, which includes congregate shelters and transitional housing, or
 - Exiting an institution where the individual or family has resided for 90 or fewer days and was living in shelter or in a place not meant for habitation before entering the institution.
- Imminently losing their primary night-time residence (Category 2).
- Unaccompanied youth under 25 years of age or families with children and youth who do not otherwise qualify as homeless under this definition but who are defined as homeless under another Federal statute and meet additional specified criteria (Category 3). Note: For CoC-RRH assistance to be provided to persons defined as homeless under Category 3, the project must be located within the geographic area of a CoC that has received HUD approval to serve this population.

- Fleeing or attempting to flee domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or other dangerous or life-threatening conditions (Category 4).

The CoC Program Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) may impose additional eligibility requirements that are not reflected in the regulations. Projects funded to carry out RRH assistance under the CoC program must follow both CoC Program NOFA and regulatory requirements.

Rapid Re-Housing: A program designed to help individuals and families exit homelessness as quickly as possible, move to permanent housing, and achieve stability in that housing. Rapid re-housing assistance is offered without preconditions (such as employment, income, absence of criminal record, or sobriety), and the resources and services provided are typically tailored to the unique needs of the household. The core components of a rapid re-housing program are housing identification and relocation, short and /or medium-term rental assistance, move-in (financial) assistance, and case management and housing stabilization services. See 24CFR§578.37(a)(1)(ii) & Core Components of Rapid Re-Housing, National Alliance to End Homelessness.

1. CoC-Funded Rapid re-housing projects, including new and renewal projects, but excluding those funded under the DV Bonus*, may serve individuals and families, including unaccompanied youth, who meet the following criteria:
 - Meet the definition of homeless as defined in the above section, Homeless (CoC Funded)
 - Are residing in a transitional housing project that was eliminated
 - Are residing in transitional housing funded by a Joint TH and PH-RRH component project; or
 - Are receiving services through a VA-funded homeless assistance program and meet one of the criteria under the Homeless definition at initial intake to the VA's homeless assistance system.

*Only persons who qualify under paragraph (4) of the definition of homelessness, at 24 CFR 578.3, including persons fleeing or attempting to flee domestic violence situations may be served in projects funded through the CoC-Funded DV Bonus.

2. ESG Funded Rapid Rehousing projects may serve individuals and families who meet the following criteria:
 - Meet the definition of homeless as defined in the above section, Homeless (ESG Funded)

PERSONNEL

STANDARD: The program shall be adequately staffed by qualified personnel to ensure quality service delivery, effective program management, and the safety of program participants.

CRITERIA:

1. The agency selects, for its service staff, only those employees and/or volunteers with appropriate knowledge or experience of working with individuals and families experiencing homelessness and/or other issues that put individuals or families at risk of housing instability.

2. The program provides training to all paid and volunteer staff on both the policies and procedures employed by the program and on specific skill areas as determined by the program.
3. All paid and volunteer service staff participate in ongoing and/or external training and development to further enhance their knowledge and ability to work with individuals and families experiencing homelessness and/or other issues that put individuals or families at risk of housing instability.
4. For programs that use HMIS/DVMIS, all HMIS/DVMIS users must abide by the standard operating procedures found in the HMIS Policies and Procedures manual. Additionally, users must adhere to the privacy and confidentiality terms set forth in the User Agreement.
5. Agency staff with responsibilities for supervision of the casework, counseling, and/or case management components have, at minimum, a bachelor's degree in human service-related field and/or demonstrated ability and experience that qualifies them to assume such responsibility.
6. Staff with supervisory responsibilities for overall program operations shall have, at a minimum, a bachelor's degree in a human service-related field and/or demonstrated ability and experience that qualifies them to assume such responsibility.
7. All staff have a written job description that at a minimum addresses the major tasks to be performed and the qualifications required for the position.
8. Case supervisors review current cases and individual service plans on a regular and consistent basis to ensure quality/coordinated services.
9. The program operates under an affirmative action/civil rights compliance plans or letters of assurance.

CLIENT INTAKE PROCESS

STANDARD: The program will be an active participant in the Coordinated Entry system. The program will have minimal entry requirements to ensure the most vulnerable of the population are being served. The program will assist participants in locating safe, affordable housing that meets participants' needs in accordance with client intake practices and within respective CoC or ESG guidelines for Rapid Re-Housing Programs.

CRITERIA:

1. All program participants must meet the following program eligibility requirements:
 - a. The household must meet one of the definitions of "Homeless" (based on the program's funding source) listed on page 1 of these Standards at the time eligibility is determined.
 - b. Head(s) of household must participate in developing and carrying out an appropriate housing stability plan and maintain accountability of said plan.
2. Programs cannot disqualify an individual or family because of evictions or poor rental history, criminal history, or credit history.
3. The program explains the services that are available and the requirements for participation and secures a commitment to participate in program services from each adult household member prior to admitting the individual or family into the program. A copy of the program requirements are given to the household.
4. The program will maintain a Release of Information that allows the sharing of information with relevant people and/or agencies. Program participants must be provided with copies of all Releases of Information that they have signed and have the right to revoke any Release of Information without penalty.

PRIORITIZATION

STANDARD and CRITERIA: The policies and procedures outlined in the Coordinated Entry Policy Manual, approved by the Siouxland Coalition to End Homelessness COC, shall be followed when prioritizing eligible households.

PROGRAM OPERATIONS

STANDARD: The program will assist participants in locating safe, affordable housing that meets participants' needs in accordance with client intake practices and within the prescribed CoC or ESG Rapid Re-Housing program funding guidelines.

CRITERIA:

1. The program explains the program rules and expectations prior to admitting the individual or family into the program. These rules and expectations should assure fairness to avoid arbitrary decisions that may vary from client to client or staff to staff.
2. In locating housing, the program considers the needs of the individual or family experiencing homelessness.
3. If ESG-funded, programs will assess potential housing for compliance with HUD Habitability Standards, lead-based paint, and rent reasonableness and fair market rent standards prior to the participant signing a lease with the landlord, and the program signing a rental assistance agreement with the landlord.
4. If CoC-funded, programs will assess potential housing for compliance with CoC HUD Housing Quality Standards (HQS), lead-based paint, and rent reasonableness and fair market rent standards prior to the participant signing a lease with the landlord, and the program signing a rental assistance agreement with the landlord. See 24CFR§578.37(a)(1)(ii).
5. The program provides assistance in accessing suitable housing.
6. The ESG-funded RRH program may provide assistance with:
 - Short-term rental assistance (up to 3 months)
 - Medium-term rental assistance (4 to 24 months)
 - Rental arrears (one-time payment of up to 6 months of rent in arrears, including any late fees on those arrears)
 - Rental application fees
 - Security deposits (up to 2 months)
 - Last month's rent
 - Case Management (at a minimum, must meet monthly)
 - Utility deposits and payments (up to 24 months, including up to 6 months for payments in arrears)
 - Moving costs
 - Housing search and placement
 - Housing stability case management
 - Mediation
 - Legal services
 - Credit repair
7. The CoC-funded RRH program may provide assistance with:

- Short-term rental assistance (up to 3 months)
 - Medium-term rental assistance (4 to 24 months)
 - Security deposits (up to 2 months)
 - First and last month's rent
 - Property damage
 - Case Management (at a minimum, must meet monthly)
8. The program signs a rental assistance agreement with the landlord. The program participant signs a lease with the landlord. The program and the participant sign a housing stabilization plan.
 - a. ESG-funded RRH Lease Requirements:
 - Program participants may receive PBRA or TBRA assistance
 - Program participants receiving PBRA must sign a lease of at least one year. There is no minimum lease period for TBRA
 - There is no lease requirement in the case of rental assistance provided solely for rental arrears
 - b. CoC-funded RRH Lease Requirements:
 - Program participants receiving TBRA must sign a lease of at least one year
 - Lease is renewable for a minimum term of one month
 - Lease is terminable only for cause
 9. The program may pay up to 100% of the participant's first month's rent.
 - a. If the household moves into housing between the 1st and the 15th of the month, that month will be considered the "first month."
 - b. If the household moves into housing between the 16th and the end of the month, the following month will be considered the "first month." In this situation, the program may provide up to 100% of the pro-rated rent in addition to the first month's rent.
 10. Participants may not be required to contribute rent:
 - a. Providers funded under ESG or CoC may pay up to 100 percent of the reasonable rent and utility costs for program participants. Providers may, at their discretion, choose to impose rental charges on participants. In the event that providers elect to charge rent or occupancy charges, these charges may not exceed those established in 24 CFR 578.77.
 - b. Participant's income shall be assessed prior to approval for initial (beyond the first month) and additional financial assistance. Documentation of the participant's income and expenses, including how the participant is contributing to housing costs, if at all, shall be maintained in participant's file. This file shall also contain a plan to sustain housing following the assistance, including either a plan to increase income or decrease expenses or both.
 - c. Any additional requirements regarding the percentage or amount of rent and utilities costs each program participant shall pay shall be determined by the individual service provider's policies and clearly communicated to program participants.
 11. Programs shall establish minimum standards for determining how long a particular program participant shall be provided with rental assistance and whether and how the amount of that assistance shall be adjusted over time are:

- a. Participants receive approval for the minimum amount of financial assistance necessary to prevent homelessness. Documentation of financial need shall be kept in the participant's file for each month of financial assistance received. Participants shall not be approved for more rental assistance than can be justified given their income and expenses at a given time.
- b. Approval for rental assistance shall be granted in no more than three month increments. Providers must re-assess the continuing need for rental assistance before approving additional assistance. In no event will assistance under rapid rehousing exceed 24 months in any 36 month period.

CoC CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES

STANDARD: The program shall provide access to case management services by trained staff to each individual or family participating in the program.

CRITERIA:

1. Case Management. Individual case management is provided to program participants at least monthly.  - a. Lack of resources and support networks. The household must continue to lack sufficient resources and support networks to retain housing without program assistance.
 - b. Need. The program must determine the amount and type of assistance that the household needs/wants to (re)gain stability in permanent housing.
 - c. Income. The household's annual income must be at or below 30% AMI.

SERVICE COORDINATION

STANDARD: The program will assist program participants, pursuant to 24CFR§576.400, in obtaining appropriate supportive services and other Federal, State, local, and private assistance available for such individuals as needed and requested by the household. Staff should be knowledgeable about mainstream programs, services in the community, and requirements pertaining to school age children, ensuring that children being served in the program are enrolled in school and connected to appropriate services in the community—24CFR§578.23(c)(4)(iv).

CRITERIA:

1. Arrangements shall be made as appropriate with community agencies and individuals for the provision of education, employment, and training; schools and enrichment programs; healthcare and dental clinics; mental health resources; chemical dependency assessments and treatment; legal services; budgeting and credit repair; and other assistance requested by the participant, which are not provided directly by the program.

2. Other homeless and mainstream resources for which, if eligible, a client should be assisted in obtaining, include: Emergency Financial Assistance; domestic violence shelters; local Housing Authorities, public housing, rent subsidies and subsidized housing; temporary labor agencies; childcare resources and public programs that subsidize childcare; consumer credit counseling service agencies; youth development and child welfare; Community Support Programs; WIC; SNAP; Unemployment Insurance; Social Security benefits; Medicaid/Medicare.

TERMINATION

STANDARD: Termination is expected to be limited to only the most severe cases. Programs will exercise judgment and examine all extenuating circumstances when determining if violations are serious enough to warrant termination.

CRITERIA:

1. In terminating assistance to a program participant, the agency must follow the due process provisions set forth in 24CFR§578.91 (CoC) or 24CFR§576.402 (ESG) as well as the following process: (1) providing the program participant with a written copy of the program rules and the termination process before the participant begins to receive assistance; (2) written notice to the program participant containing a clear statement of the reason for termination; (3) a review of the decision, in which the program participant is given the opportunity to present written or oral objections before a person other than the person (or a subordinate of that person) who made or approved the termination decision; and (4) prompt written notice of the final decision to the program participant.
2. Termination under this section does not bar the program from providing further assistance at a later date to the same individual or family.
3. Programs are encouraged to re-house, rather than terminate assistance to, households that are evicted from their housing while participating in the Rapid Re-Housing program.

FOLLOW-UP SERVICES

STANDARD: The program shall provide a continuity of services to all participants following their exit from the program. These services can be provided directly and/or through referrals to other agencies or individuals.

CRITERIA:

1. The program develops exit plans with the participant to ensure continued housing stability and connection with community resources, as desired.
2. The program should attempt to follow up with phone or written contact at least once after the client exits the program. A program may provide follow-up services that include identification of additional needs and referral to other agency or community resources in order to prevent future episodes of homelessness.
3. CoC-RRH allows for supportive services to be provided for up to six (6) months after rental assistance stops.

CLIENT FILES

STANDARD: The documentation necessary for the effective delivery and tracking of service will be kept up-to-date and the confidentiality of program participants will be maintained.

CRITERIA:

1. The file maintained on each participant should, at a minimum, include information required by HUD participation agreements, service plans, case notes, information on the services provided both directly and through referrals to community agencies and individuals, and any follow-up and evaluation data that are compiled. The case file should also include:
 - a. Documentation of homelessness,
 - b. Type of need (amount and type).
2. Client information must be entered into HMIS/DVMIS in accordance with the data quality, timeliness and additional requirements found in the HMIS Policies and Procedures manual. At a minimum, programs must record the date the client enters and exits the program and update the client's information as changes occur.
3. The program will maintain each participant file in a secure place and shall not disclose information from the file without the written permission of the participant as appropriate except to project staff and other agencies as required by law. Participants must give informed consent to release any client identifying data to be utilized for research, teaching and public interpretation.
4. See 24CFR578.103 for record retention pertaining to CoC funds. All records must be retained for a minimum of 5 years after the expenditure of all funds from the grant under which the program participant was served. Copies made by microfilming, photocopying, or similar methods may be substituted for the original records.

EVALUATION AND PLANNING

STANDARD: On-going program planning and evaluation will be conducted.

CRITERIA:

1. The program has written goals and objectives for its services to meet the outcomes required by HUD.
2. The program reviews the case management, housing, and follow-up needs of program participants and the existing services that are available to meet these needs. As appropriate, revisions to goals, objectives and activities are made based on program evaluation.
3. The program conducts an on-going evaluation of its services to participants.
4. The program will utilize the HMIS, when applicable, allowing for project performance outcomes to be measured and compared to the overall system performance targets.
5. The program exhibits due regard for participant privacy in conducting and reporting its evaluation.
6. The program submits quarterly reports as required by SCEH.
