

FOREVER ON

The rocks that tripped me up, I'm leaving them behind,
This ground seems firm and stable.
This life ain't about luck. I've bruises that remind,
And make me very thankful.

For the new steps I tread. For the new views ahead.
That I'm around the bend. Around the bend.

The path of life it twists and turns forever on.
Forever onwards through unending left, right and wrongs.
The spark of life it always burns forever on.
Forever enlightening all ways, forever on, forever on.

There are many roads to take. The crossroads I did find,
Can lead to paths so brutal.
The choices I have made, have left those paths behind,
While taking what is useful.

Taking new steps instead. Taking in new views ahead.
As I'm around the bend. Around the bend.

The path of life it twists and turns forever on.
Forever onwards through unending left, right and wrongs.
The spark of life it always burns forever on.
Forever enlightening always, forever on, ever on.

No bridges should be burned. Gladly leave them all behind,
They'll always serve a purpose.
Through journeying I've learned through difference you'll find,
That no footstep is worthless.

Seeing the steps to tread. Seeing great views ahead.
See I'm around the bend. Around the bend.

The path of life it twists and turns forever on.
Forever onwards through unending left, right and wrongs.
The spark of life it always burns forever on.
Forever enlightening all-ways, forever on, forever on.
