

IS THERE MEANING?

You think you can hurt me
You don't understand
You can't hurt me
You can't hurt the walking dead
The walking dead

I once had fighting spirit
But left it in a far away land
Full of tragedy and savagery
Where once was life the dead now stand

I can't feel sadly
Too much is going on in my head
Distant memories of true agony
Remind me that this end ain't bad

I'm numb. I fear nothing
I'm so numb. Nothing's beating
I'm so numb. There's no feeling
Is there meaning? Is there meaning?

I've suffered much greater
Too far away to even compare
You're seeing calm. You think it's armour on You're just looking at all the scars I wear

Not much has stayed
I even think my soul has now fled
But one thing remains driving me insane
The memories that scream inside my head

I'm numb. I fear nothing
I'm so numb. Nothing's beating
I'm so numb. There's no feeling
Is there meaning? Is there meaning?

Too numb to tell. Am I in heaven?
No! I'm still in hell. Too numb to tell
Is there meaning. There's no feeling
Is there meaning? There's no feeling
Please God make me cry!

You think you can hurt me
Understand
You can't hurt me
You can't hurt the walking dead
The walking dead

Is there meaning? (Meaning is there, is there, is there)
Is there meaning? (Meaning is there, is there, is there)
Is there meaning? (Meaning is there, is there)
Is there meaning? Is there meaning? Is there meaning?
