

Dresden C.A.R.E.D firmly opposes harassment, slander, or hate speech directed towards any individual. We are committed to upholding principles of respectful and kind communication, particularly when engaging with government officials.

We encourage others to maintain these standards and do not support those who fail to do so. Below, you'll find a contact table as well as examples of questions or requests.

Before contacting any individual, we highly recommend that you educate yourself on the topic and communicate respectfully. This document is provided as a resource to assist you.
