

Rainbow Belts

Hybrid - 90% Indica / 10% Sativa

THC: 19.8%

Rainbow Belts, also known as "Rainbow Belt," is an indica marijuana strain made from by crossing Moonbow with Zkittlez. The effects of Rainbow Belts are mostly calming. Consumers say this strain offers a euphoric high that leaves you feeling happy and relaxed. Rainbow Belts is 24% THC, making this strain an ideal choice for cannabis consumers with a high THC tolerance. Rainbow Belts buds have gorgeous fluffy rounded popcorn-shaped forest green nugs with purple undertones, bright orange hairs and a coating of frosty amber crystal trichomes. As you pull apart each sticky nugget aromas of sharp lemon lime and flowery diesel are released intensifying the more that you toke. The flavor is of sweet lemon lime with hints of ripe grapes and spicy berries. The Rainbow Belts high isn't quite as bright as the flavor with effects that will have you feeling relaxed more than energized. The flavor and aroma of this strain may remind you of sweet and fruity candy. Rainbow Belts has sedating qualities so it's best to enjoy this strain during the evening hours. This strain was originally bred by Archive Seed Bank.
