

Dear Guest,

Thank you for choosing Merchant Camps and Lodge located in Garfield PLT., Maine. Enclosed is a list of what to bring as well as forms to fill out and bring with you. We look forward to meeting all of you!

What Clothes to bring (Bear Hunt):

- Full Camo - Short sleeve and long sleeve, light jacket or pullover, for warm days and cool evenings
- Head net with eye slots & bug net
- Lightweight gloves
- Rubber Boots
- Scent free soaps and scent free detergent (All clothes should be washed in scent free wash or baking soda and placed in plastic bags before arrival)
- Scent Lock is optional but is great option
- Clothes for when not hunting
- Fishing Equipment (if you wish to fish, license is required)

What Gear to bring (Bear Hunt):

- Medications (if you take any)
- Spare Glasses
- Weapon of Choice
- Spare Ammo, Arrows or Bolts
- Seat cushion of quiet material
- EMERGENCY PACK - 2 compasses, Flashlight, Knife, Whistle or noise making device, Mirror, Lighter or matches & Fire Starter
- Plastic bottle or container as portable potty to use in stand
- Headlamp & Rain Gear

There are some things that we would like to know about you:

What type of weapon are you using? _____

Right Handed or Left Handed? _____

Prefer Tree Stand or Ground Blind, willing to sit in either? _____

Any physical limitations or handicaps? _____

Allergies - Food or Environmental? _____

Emergency Contact? _____

Remember that your hunt includes: 3 meals a day (for Guided Bear Hunt), cabin, bedding and towels are provided. We do not provide any alcohol.

If you are a smoker: Please take great caution to not get any cigarette or cigar smoke on your hunting gear. You are hunting an animal that is extremely sensitive to smells, especially foreign ones. You may ruin your chances of seeing a bear as well as those that you ride with. You may smoke outside only; all buildings are smoke-free. Please smoke a distance away from all open windows.

Thank you for your consideration of others.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Dooley - Owner

PLEASE SIGN ACKNOWLEDGMENT BELOW AND BRING THIS SHEET WITH YOU:

Release of Liability:

There is NO ALCOHOL CONSUMPTION of any amount before the hunt, if we believe you have been drinking you will not hunt that day. You may drink at night after the hunt in your cabin or on your porch. We stress safety during your hunt. Please use caution at all times when handling your weapon. Practice with your weapon of choice before you arrive. There is a shooting range nearby to make sure your weapon is sighted in, if needed. If we feel that you are endangering the safety of others or yourself (due to reckless behavior or handling of your weapon) we reserve the right to terminate your hunt without refund.

I have read the alcohol policy and will abide by it. (sign) _____
