

Getting the Most from Tuition

Go beyond 1-2-1 Tuition with extra services

I want my students to do well in their exams. I also want them to really understand Government and Politics. My 1-2-1 lessons get to grip with the content of the syllabus and exams, but I have also designed extra services that take students further. This paper explains what they are and how they can help.

There are a range of options to choose from. On 1-2-1 tuition, students (or their parents) can opt for pay as you go lessons. They can also purchase a block of 4-hour long lessons, at a reduced price. For the ultimate value Term Time Membership provides 10-hour long lessons plus a range of extra resources for free.

In addition, I run monthly workshops with multiple students to discuss the events of the previous few weeks. There is a Politics Book Club for students to discuss what they are reading. I run Q&A sessions where students can ask me about A-Level matters and the news.

1-2-1 Tuition

Students (and their parents) can purchase 1-2-1 lessons on my website either as Pay As You Go or as a block of four lessons for a reduced hourly rate.

Term Time Membership

Students opting for Term Time Membership receive 10 hour long 1-2-1 lessons, plus access to membership areas of the website. Their parents can also request access to these areas. The membership areas include extra resources, news about upcoming events and member-only benefits.

Term Time Membership includes a monthly workshop where students work together on analysing the news and producing revision resources. There are Q&A sessions where students can ask me questions about Government and Politics. There is a Politics book Club where students can share what they are reading. Parents can even request a parents' evening to discuss progress.

Extras

The workshops and extra sessions that come with Term Time Membership can also be purchased separately. If you want to Pay As You Go, you can top up your tuition with Monthly Workshops, Q&A sessions and more as your studies progress.

The Weekly Review and Pollina Updates

Each week I send subscribers to my website a Weekly Review of news stories, analysis, videos and podcasts. It is designed to be a digest of the best material available to keep totally up to date.

At the start of each month subscribers receive a UK Polling Update to help them understand the state of the parties at Westminster and in the nations. It also includes the approval ratings of prominent politicians.
