

2017 Equine Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Symposium

Saturday, October 14 – Sunday, October 15
8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Symposium Description

This unique two-day seminar will feature lectures and live demonstrations by internationally recognized authorities and prominent local veterinarians. The goal for attendees is to gain a better understanding of the diagnosis, treatment, and rehabilitation of sport horse injuries as well as the anatomy, pathophysiology, and treatment of laminitis. Live demonstrations will take place at 3H Equine Clinic in New Hill, North Carolina.

Speakers

Dr. Tracy Turner – Turner Equine Sports Medicine and Surgery

Dr. Andrew van Eps – University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine

Dr. Richard Mansmann – Equine Podiatry & Rehabilitation Mobile Practice

Dr. Kirsten Tillotson – Tillotson Equine Internal Medicine and Mobile Services

Dr. Robert Meyer – Neuse River Equine Hospital

Dr. Fernando Cardenas – 3H Equine Clinic and Mobile Veterinary Services

Registration

Veterinarian, Vet Tech, Farrier – $300
Owner, Trainer – $250
Student – $50

One-day registration option is available. Registration rates will increase after October 1, 2017. Fee includes admission to lectures and demonstrations, breakfast and lunch both days, a reception on Saturday evening, and 14 hours of NCVMB approved CVME credits. For more information, visit the symposium webpage at <https://goo.gl/vyzhq9>.

Scan the QR code below to register now!

