Part X Line 2 The Organization is exempt from federal and state income taxes on its related activities under Internal Revenue Service Code Section 501(c)(3). Accordingly, no provision for federal and state income taxes has been made. The Organization files the required federal and state information returns. Whenever tax returns are filed, the filing organization must evaluate the merits of its tax positions and determine if they will be ultimately sustained. Those tax positions for the Organization include maintaining their tax-exempt status and the taxability of any unrelated business income. The Organization believes these positions are sustainable. Although the Organization has not incurred any interest and penalties associated with these positions, it is their policy to expense them in the statement of activities. With few exceptions, the Organization is generally no longer subject to examination by taxing authorities for years before June 30, 2022.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c: An annual disclosure questionnaire is signed by each Board member and Board members are reminded to immediately notify the Executive Director if they are aware of any issue that might constitute a conflict of interest.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a: During the fiscal year, Youth Collaborative, Inc. provided intensive outreach, mentoring, advocacy, transportation assistance, and case management services to 85 youth facing barriers including violence exposure, school disengagement, instability, and other high-risk factors. Services were delivered using relationship-centered and trauma-informed intervention approaches focused on promoting long-term stability, educational success, and positive youth development. Program accomplishments included assisting 22 youth in successfully obtaining their high school diploma or GED completion. Youth Collaborative staff also provided more than 4,000 hours of mentorship and supportive services to participating youth through individualized guidance, crisis support, advocacy, goal planning, and consistent community-based engagement. To reduce barriers to participation and service access, 100% of youth received transportation assistance when needed for school, employment, appointments, supportive services, and program-related activities. Additionally, 95% of participating youth successfully completed individualized program goals identified through case planning and mentorship support. Youth Collaborative also worked collaboratively with families, schools, and community partners to strengthen support systems and improve access to resources for vulnerable youth and their caregivers.
