PRELUDE

Miracles are real, but when one happens in your life do others see it?

Saturday, November 21st, 1987 with all of AMERICA watching a miracle occurred in my life for all to see.

History will remember the 1987 battle between the USC Trojans and UCLA Bruins as the single most talented game ever waged between the two city rivals and arguably the entire 150 years of College Football.

61 players between the Bruin's and Trojan's rosters in 1987 were drafted into the National Football League, producing over 500 Years of combined NFL experience!

Troy Aikman UCLA's quarterback with his Brad Pitt good looks and cannon for an arm was AMERICAS heart throb, this dude was icy cool and the fans LOVED him.

Troy is a human GOD, the #1 pick in the NFL Draft, Super Bowl MVP, NFL Hall of Famer and voice of Fox Football he has become a living legend.

Troy Aikman is the best quarterback in the history of UCLA football bar none.

Rodney Peete USC's quarterback resembled Denzel

Washington with his contagious smile and born leadership skills, he was a smooth operator and everybody LOVED being around him his personality was magnetic.

Rodney Peete is the most dynamic quarterback in USC Football history, his football skills would change the game forever his running and throwing moved football forward evolving the quarterback position into what it is today.

Rodney is a football savant his father was an NFL coach and Rodney took his personality and genius football IQ to a 17-year NFL career.

Rodney landed in Hollywood after his football career and has achieved celebrity status as a TV host and actor.

Troy and Rodney were on the cover of every football magazine in AMERICA. The country was infatuated with these super stars and when they got it on in 1987 the whole country watched it go down.

Troy Aikman vs Rodney Peete the two All American Quarterbacks who resembled Hector and Achilles locked in a historic battle the type that legends are made of.

Terry Donahue the playboy coach of UCLA had built the BEST TEAM IN UCLA HISTORY and was ranked as high as #1 in the country, primed to take control of football in the City of Angels.

Coach Donahue and his family lived 5 miles from my family and UCLA was the only school in AMERICA who never sent me a letter after I kicked a 64 yard field goal at Oak Park High School in 1982.

My kick traveled the World setting a National High School record and eclipsing the NFL record of 63 yards as well.

I became famous overnight, AMERICA became obsessed with my foot and I was featured on every TV channel and newspaper in the country.

I was selected as a 1st Team High School ALL AMERICAN in 1983.

AMERICA knew my name and the Bruins would not give me the time of day.

Coach Donahue later told me while crying and drinking beer together in a Palm Springs night club it was the worst coaching decision he ever made by not recruiting #42.

Coach went on to say if they did UCLA would have won 2 National Titles and it was me #42 who snatched those coveted National Titles away from the Bruins 2 years in a row.

My senior season in 1988 I became a 1st Team All American Wide Receiver and the All-Time Leading Receiver in USC football history.

This is the story of how it came to be that a Jewish boy from Detroit , Michigan by GODS HANDS rose to the top of the College Football World at the University of Southern California

FOOTBALL

George Washington forged AMERICA on the premises of Justice, Peace and Harmony for ALL.

LOVE creates Justice.

LOVE creates Peace.

LOVE creates Harmony.

AMERICA was founded on the premises of LOVE.

George Washington's vision for AMERICA was a country forged for the salvation of mankind based on LOVE not war.

A country where freedom and liberty are the fundamental rights of birth.

During Karl's illness we were able to talk at length about life which always came back to College Football and the fans, students and alumni that make College Football the greatest game on Earth.

During the last few weeks of his time on earth Karl and I pondered the question.

Why is it that College Football can bring humans together in a way like no other medium on Earth?

The racism, the hate, and the fear are set aside for the LOVE of the game.

LOVE is what makes Blacks, Whites and Browns all come together to cheer and exchange high fives in a euphoric moment we call College Football.

The night before Karl went to Heaven we viewed the 1987 USC vs UCLA game as if we had never watched it before.

What we talked about were not my exploits but how all these fans, students, and alumni get along at this moment. All races, all creeds and all colors engaged in a breathtaking moment Karl and I call “The Magnificent Dance”.

This experience is a beautiful moment to be part of it gives us hope for AMERICA.

AMERICA and College Football have had an intimate relationship for 150 years.

What Changes when FANS CHEER for their TEAM. is it an ACT of LOVE?

LOVE moves hate, fear, and ego to the side. LOVE is the only emotion that can overcome hate, fear, and ego.

LOVE is the only emotion that allows humans to put their skin color to the side and Bfree from the mental chains that bind them with fear of skin color.

Great teams have no fear, great teams have no racism, great teams have no ego. Great teams play with LOVE and passion securing victories because their energy is focused as one group bound by the LOVE of the team.

Great teams absorb the energy of the opponent and eventually wear them out for victory.

100,000 rabid fans packed in the most iconic stadium in the World the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

At least another 150,000 fans outside the stadium tailgating because the stadium is sold out every seat taken.

Every bar stool and living room couch in the City of Angels and AMERICA was tuned to this game on this day Saturday November 21st, 1987.

The energy on the field was electrifying this was a battle for the ages and every man left it all on the field that day.

120 Volts of energy radiating from every fan in a back and forth dance of transferring energy to one another creating the narcotic frequency we call LOVE.

People of all races and colors over 2 million volts of energy being passed around by the 250,000 fans that had surrounded the Coliseum that day in 1987.

The color of your skin or eyes or hair no longer matters just the LOVE for your team and your City.

Every player in this game was a stud and nobody wanted to lose, it was a brutal game played by real warriors.

I LOVE and respect all the players and coaches for the battle that was waged that day in the City of Angels it was a real war.

The electricity on the field was palatable everyone standing cheering the entire game it would be a battle to the last play and nobody was giving in.

Every hit was brutal, broken bones, ligaments torn, multiple concussions and blood everywhere.

I was able to bamboozle a team trainer the day of the game against UCLA to allow Karl on the field by wearing a team trainer outfit which got him on the sidelines for the entire game.

As fate would have it, #42 would end up making “The Catch” that is still talked about today as if it were yesterday.

I was blessed to have made the most famous “Catch” in USC football lore and the most famous “No Catch” in UCLA football lore.

Landing #42 on the cover of Sports Illustrated as well as every newspaper and TV show in AMERICA.

Karl got to feel the energy that day and he never forgot how it felt to be on the field with so many fans cheering and booing you all at once.

For two Brothers this was a magical moment to enjoy together.

Even on his death bed Karl could still feel the energy that was cast upon the Affholter Brothers that day, 2 million volts of human energy all focused on Affholter #42.

Karl spent the last 30 years of his life traversing every road in AMERICA, he was a trucker and LOVED it. His travels allowed him to attend games at college stadiums around AMERICA.

From the Tigers of Baton Rouge to the Cowboys of Stillwater and Rolling with the Tide, Karl keep detailed records of his travels making 1000's of new friends along the way..

Karl attended 118 different College Venues tailgating at all of them.

An ice cold Coors Light was his preferred beverage with a brat, kraut n' mustard.

Karl LOVED College Football and the pageantry that makes College Football like no other experience on Earth.

College Football is AMERICAS MIRACLE where Race, Creed, and Color Vanishes and LOVE Reigns.

~JOHN WOODEN~

PART TWO

THE GREAT LOTTERY
OF LIFE

John Wooden legendary UCLA Basketball coach guided UCLA to the most magical run in college sports history with 10 NCAA National Titles in a 12 year period.

Coach Wooden was a coaching genius and I was fortunate enough to have spent time with him.

Coach Wooden and I talked in detail about parenting and the mistakes parents make in raising their children to be athletes.

Coach Wooden would say,

“Do not force it, let the child find what he or she LOVES to do, support them, cultivate their dreams, make it your dream together every great athlete needs a mentor”.

Parents are the guide to their children’s athletic future a child has no choice whom they are born to.

“The Great Lottery of Life” chooses for us, we will have no choice as to our color, creed or religion or the LOVE or fear our parents will bestow upon us.

Who chooses whom their parents are going to be?

Who chooses what color their skin is going to be?

Who chooses what color their eyes are going to be?

Who chooses what color their hair is going to be?

Who chooses what Country they will be born in?

A newborn baby never chooses race, religion, hate, fear, or their parents. We have no choice, the choice is the parents.

I was born Hebrew, Easter Sunday 1966 in Detroit Michigan into the “The Great Lottery of Life” whom my parents would be, I would have No Say in the matter!

Detroit Michigan in the 60’s was a racial hot box and my family was stuck in the middle of the chaos.

White and Black relations were exploding, riots were the norm and fighting for your mere life was necessary.

Blacks and Whites were not socializing even as a young boy I can remember the negative words spoken and the fighting.

I was being conditioned to hate people with Black skin and that we cannot coexist.

We lived in fear and chaos not the World I would have chosen to be born into. Karl and I were stuck in a City that was imploding fear and hate where the norm.

Our father Conrad resembled Thor, a real Viking God with muscles on top of muscles.

As Conrad’s “Great Lottery of Life” would have it, he was born and raised in Detroit, Michigan during a period in Detroit where race riots and White and Black relations were deadly.

Conrad grew up in a situation where he was forced into racism, fear, and hate.

Fighting around the neighborhood was an act of survival, Conrad was cast into a life that was void of LOVE only hate, therefore hate is what he manifested back to the World in the form of his fists.

Conrad played football in the very tough Catholic Leagues around Detroit where he thrived as an offensive guard.

Conrad earned a scholarship to play College Football at Arizona State in 1960 for legendary head coach Frank Kush. Frank Kush was as tough as they came, Conrad learned how to work hard and compete.

After Arizona State, Conrad returned to Detroit to find the city even worse than when he left. His old acquaintances quickly wrangled him back into the gang life which is how Conrad met my Mother Ruth.

My Mothers “Great Lottery of Life” would have her born into a Jewish Family that was part of the feared Jewish Mob that ran the streets of Detroit the “Purple Gang”

The family was from Jerusalem they were old school and

Conrad showing his stuff, Arizona State 1960

Ruth & Erik 1988 USC Football Banquet

their businesses reached from Detroit all the way to Las Vegas casinos. Karl was born in Las Vegas in 1968 while the family was operating a prominent Vegas Casino.

Gambling and Liquor were the family business and the federal government was hot of their heels by the end of the 60's.

As members of the family began to get arrested and tired of seeing their friend's bloody bodies all over the streets, Conrad and Ruth had a bigger vision for their children's future.

Ruth hatched a selfless plan to save her two boys from life in the Jewish mob. Ruth knew her boys fate if they stayed in Detroit there was no way out except to flee the City.

In 1972 under the cover of darkness on Ruth's wishes Conrad slipped out of Detroit and boarded Karl and I onto a Greyhound bus.

With lots of courage and a dream, Conrad and his 2 Boys headed for the City of Angels for a fresh start in life.

Being in the City of Angels allowed Conrad to get over his fear of color, he relinquished the hate gave up racism and dropped his fists in exchange for a real California LOVE-IN.

Every athletes story has a person who LOVED them unconditionally and it is that LOVE that rises them to the top of their craft. Conrad was that person in my life.

All greatness comes from LOVE. LOVE is the root of greatness.

Without LOVING you will never be LOVED back or recognized as truly great.

By the grace of GOD Conrad found himself on the California coast in 1972 where LOVE not fear was being cast around.

Karl and I were saved by LOVE, by the actions of others that Conrad was able to witness.

Conrad watched all the races mixing in the City of Angels in the 70s and he let it all go, he changed to the LOVE frequency and never went back.

He taught Karl and I how to LOVE and not hate which opened the door to huge successes on the athletic field, in the classroom, and in life.

Even as adults we can change our actions, act in LOVE, and others will follow it is our human instinct.

Teach our children how to LOVE, not to hate. Their instinct is to LOVE and give LOVE back to you and other humans.

Every athlete needs a mentor, Conrad was mine

PART THREE

A REAL CALIFORNIA
LOVE-IN...
WHO'S BLACK
WHITE OR BROWN
ANYWAY

Kool and the Gang sang “Celebration Time”, Le Chic belted “Play that Funky Music White Boy” while Barry White’s smooth voice summed it all up “Can’t Get Enough of Your Love, Babe”, it was Jungle Fever and we all had it.

The City of Angels in the 70’s was a real LOVE-IN where your skin color was just what’s on the menu.

Nude beaches around LA were the norm and you could shake your booty all night long as disco techs raged on every corner.

UCLA was the best team in America in Basketball, USC was the best team in America in Football and the LOVE-IN was raging at both schools.

The Bruins and Trojans were at the top of their games and the battles were fierce but the after parties were sweet.

The City of Angels was resonating with LOVE and everybody could feel it the racial spell had been broken and the party was on.

LOVE was free and life was easy, Blacks, Whites, and Browns all partying at packed stadiums, grooving at local night clubs while nightly parties on the beaches raged until sunrise.

No longer were the restrictions of race present you could fall in LOVE with any race you desired. Racial lines were crossed and new babies were born of various colors who dominate AMERICA today.

AMERICA is a cornucopia of colors and races all mixed together which started in the 70's in a huge LOVE-IN that changed the color of the World.

Our home was no exception the party was on, Conrad was a stud and the women LOVED him.

Women and Men of all colors would frequent our house, Conrad was a single man and the whole neighborhood knew where the party would be.

Karl and I would sit in our upstairs bedrooms and watch naked men and women everywhere, orgies that would last for days.

Our House and whole neighborhood was resonating with LOVE humans free from the bondage of race or color treating each other with LOVE and respect it was contagious.

Growing up in this environment you realize skin color makes no difference, watching people have sex hundreds of them you see how LOVE takes over and color goes away.

When AMERICA in the 70's decided to break free from the racial bondage that suffocates the World, and just LOVE each other the vibration from AMERICA was engulfing the World.

The Affholter Family Pool

Malibu, CA We would surf at this Nude Beach everyday

Having lived in Los Angeles for 50 years I wonder who's Black, White, or Brown anyway?

Every family I know one or more of the siblings have mixed their DNA with another color than their own.

If your Mom is Black, your Dad is White, your Grandpa is Black, and your Grandma is White, then what color are you?

Bob Marley is Black right?

Well his Mom's Black from Jamaica and his Dad is a White Man from England, so is Bob Marley Black or White?

Damien Marley, Bob Marley's youngest son and phenomenal musician whom I LOVE, his mother is White, that means his dad is part Black and part White and his mom is White, but his Grandparents are Black and White. So is Damien Marley Black because he has Dreadlocks and darker skin?

See, I am confused too. I cannot understand why one color or another color says anything about a person's character or ability to LOVE.

Black, White or Brown were all mixed, every race and every culture has scenarios just like the Marley's occurring over thousands of years.

Damien and Bob Marley are shining lights upon this World sharing their LOVE and inspiration regardless of their skin color or yours.

AMERICA is intended to be a paradise where your skin color does not matter.

We are all Brothers and Sisters we know that we're from AMERICA we're supposed to be the wise ones, the salvation of the World.

The whole World is watching to see if AMERICA can get it together and overcome our differences and restore AMERICA to its once grand stature.

Our collective LOVE will heal AMERICA and spread to the rest of the World.

It is up to us the Fans, Students and Alumni of College Football to return to the mindset we once had where LOVE was the answer not fear, racism, and separation.

Color; is just that, a color, nothing more, nothing less.

AMERICA showed the World we can mix races, AMERICA has the brightest most enlightened Children in the World.

A renaissance of faith is upon AMERICA, LOVE is the way forward, LOVE suffocates fear, hate and racism.

~SNOOP DOGG~

PART FOUR

CRIPS, BLOODS,
KKK AND THE USC
CRACK HOUSE

Snoop Dogg is one of AMERICAS great rags to riches stories, he forged a career path in Los Angeles where he once faced trial for a murder charge in which he was ultimately acquitted and falsely charged.

Snoop Dogg and his posse where being hunted by the KKK also known as the Police who ran the streets of LA at the time with an iron fist.

LOVE for each other and belief in their cause allowed Snoop Dogg to rise above the hate, fear, and racism that engulfed his young life on the streets of LA and became an AMERICAN Icon.

By the 80's AMERICAN society started getting prude and life was starting to change, the lust for money instead of LOVE became the focus.

Free LOVE was fading, there was a concerted effort to end the LOVE-IN.

Reaganomics swept Los Angeles and AMERICA hard, the rich got richer and the poor got poorer and I was there to watch it all go down.

Discrimination was happening, police violence, false drug arrest, erroneous jail sentences all against the minority population.

The World had taken notice of AMERICAS freedom and our bountiful LOVE for each other regardless of skin color and the Government put a stop to it.

Retired Marine lieutenant Colonel Oliver North in his memoirs bragged that the United States Government was behind the explosion of crack cocaine on the streets of Inner Cities throughout AMERICA.

I watched it happen again and again my Black and Latino friends harassed, beaten and arrested by police for no reason other than their skin color.

I watched drugs be planted on innocent young men then arrested and put in jail.

Jails were filled with Blacks and Latinos who were mostly innocent. The culture on AMERICAN streets went from FREE LOVE to violence seemingly overnight.

Systematic arrests of Black and Latino men were made creating a mortal war that spawned from both cultures being locked in a cell and forced to fight in the jails.

These fights carried from the jails to the streets and these same fights of retribution continue today.

UCLA and USC were both recruiting players from the High Schools around Los Angeles.

Gang violence in Los Angeles was very much tied to both

1984 USC Wide Receiver Crew

1988 1st Team All American, chatting it up with ESPN schools each team had players who were forced into the gang life in the 80's.

Young Latinos and Blacks needed to form gangs of their own to protect themselves as they were literally being hunted.

There was a White gang that ran the streets we called the KKK or better known as the police. The KKK were White and as racist as you can get.

The KKK went out of their way to make trouble for the Black and Latino young men in Los Angeles.

I watched as they formed gangs to protect themselves against the police, it was war on the streets of LA.

Every wide receiver was Black my first year at USC, most recruited from High School's around Los Angeles.

These were tough guys who separated themselves from difficult circumstances and rose to the top of their craft to receive a scholarship to USC.

Crack cocaine and gangs began to change the landscape of Los Angeles and I got stuck in the middle of it. I was able to go into the neighborhoods and homes around Los Angeles and see life through my teammates eyes.

The fight for the minds of young men was fierce in the inner cities around AMERICA, drug lords and moms battling it out for the salvation of their children.

This is where my journey to make “The Catch” starts to become the impossible dream.

I started to get lost in the smoke and mirrors of life, I found myself kicked out of the freshman dormitory for throwing my bedroom furniture out of my 5th story window, on a bet.

This event got me thrown out of the freshman dormitory and put on probation, the school gave me money to get my own apartment.

My new apartment became the literal Crack House for the older players and their girls.

I watched a teammate crawl on my floor and catch a cockroach. He then insisted the cockroach ate his cocaine rock that he dropped on the carpet. He then proceeded to smoke the cockroach who ate his cocaine rock.

This drug was addicting and destructive, I would sit on my couch and listen to players make calls to women all hours of the night looking for money for more cocaine.

We were very well financed which would be many players demise the ease in which we could acquire money and drugs.

We would make phone call's all hours of the night begging for some money, my tire is flat, I need a pizza, I need books, I need gas, any story we could come up with to get money.

The girls at USC gave up money and sex freely, these Boys were real studs and the USC women LOVED us.

I found myself in crack houses all around Los Angeles because I had a car so I was the chauffeur for all these drug deals and crack houses.

Sitting in the car while the deals went down was no good because you would get jacked for sure.

I had to actually go into the crack houses around Los Angeles where needless to say I stood out.

These were the real deal crack houses with iron doors and iron windows.

Everyone inside is strapped and the weapons are loaded ready to shoot it out with the KKK. These houses were fortresses with stacks of cash and piles of crack cocaine ready for distribution.

The entire crack house is fogged with the smoke of the cocaine being cooked and being smoked. Everyone is blazing and all eyes are on me because they think I'm with the KKK.

My mind is racing thinking this is some crazy shit and looking back on those moments its only by GODS grace did I survive those days on the streets of Los Angeles.

These were my friends my teammates I LOVED them, I went along with the program for a year or so before I had to move from my own apartment to get away from the madness.

Crack cocaine was a destructive force that broke down Los Angeles and inner Cities throughout America all by design USC and UCLA Football players were both affected by the onslaught of drugs and gangs on the streets of LA.

USC made a coaching change in 1987 to the most conservative man they could find, Larry Smith, a gray haired, blue eyed, white Christian man who played at Army.

Coach Smith was tough as nails and he was hired to get rid of the brotherhood of Los Angeles boys that made USC football a global brand that dominated College Football in the 60's 70's and 80's.

The days of drinking beer with the coaches after practice and getting paid to watch sprinklers go on and off was over.

A conservative wave flooded USC in the late 80's and the Football Program has never been the same feared bunch of Brothers from Los Angeles it once was.

USC Coach Larry Smith he was tough as nails

PART FIVE

THE MIRACLE OF
“THE CATCH”
PHIL 4:13

Tim Tebow was a great ambassador for GOD wearing Bible verses on his eye black while playing for the University of Florida.

Tebow was an absolute stud winning 2 National titles and the Heisman Trophy as the best player in College Football in 2007.

Tim Tebow was amazing on the field but he did not bring religion to College Football as many football historians believe.

The Trojans did against UCLA in 1987 the day I made “The Catch” and here is the story of a Miracle that Occurred that Day.

Phil 4:13, this was our new mantra “All Things Are Possible Through GOD Who Strengthens Us”.

GODS LOVE began to spread through our team I could feel it.

1987 was my Junior season at USC and the changing of the guard was fully in place, new coach Larry Smith was as strict as they come.

Players needed to get serious about school, football, and GOD fast Larry Smith was looking for any reason to kick you off his team.

The team started its 1st bible study group and I dove in, GOD would now be the Trojans guiding light, which was a complete 180 from our previous reputation as heathens.

I did not know much about GOD at the time, my Sundays were spent watching Soul Train and playing sports.

I started attending all Black churches in Watts with some of my Black friends, I LOVED the music and dancing and the LOVE that was being spread around.

I became fascinated with the idea of GOD, I took it upon myself to read every religious text I could get my hands on. The Tanakh, The Koran, The Vedas, The New Testament, I wanted to know who GOD was.

Yahweh, Buddha, Muhammad, Christ the culture your born into usually decides what GOD you will follow.

There are common threads between all religious texts.

A reoccurring theme in all texts is that LOVE and GOOD DEEDS change you and the others around you.

I was full of LOVE but I was missing something which was the GOOD DEEDS to other humans.

All religious texts are specific about reaching out to your Human Brothers and Sisters and offering help. Extending

#42keepinghiseye

your hand in LOVE, providing food, water or shelter to those in need anything to lift another's spirits.

I started doing GOOD DEEDS around USC everyday and my life began to change overnight.

The team Bible study was growing fast in 1987 the Trojans were winning and the players could feel a spirit that started to engulf our team.

My Trojans were loaded with talent, homeboys from LA, recruited by Ted Tollner the last of the old school Trojan coaches.

These boys were phenomenal players who needed a focus to bring us together, we were 100 misfits doing our own thing until GODS LOVE began to spread within our team.

Earlier in the week of the UCLA game, I had a vision that I should take the towels that hang from our pants that we use to dry our hands and I should print the Bible verse PHIL 4:13 on them.

Then, I would distribute the towels to all the players in the Bible study the night before the UCLA game.

I had about 30 towels printed with the Bible verse "PHIL 4:13" on them, the night before the game I stood up and told the team about a vision I had.

The vision was that one of us in this room is going to be on the front page of the LA times tomorrow and this towel will be front and center depicting our great upset victory over the #1 ranked Bruins.

I would be the most unlikely candidate in the whole group to become the star that day in 1987.

#42 was not even the starter that day against UCLA, I never thought that it would be #42 who GOD would lift-up that day to fulfill my prophecy to the team.

All of AMERICA was watching this game in 1987, in the 80's there were only 3 TV channels so when the Trojans and Bruins got it on in a star studded game like this the whole Country stopped to watch us play, this game was as big as they get.

There I was #42, on the front page of the Los Angeles Times and the cover of Sports Illustrated along with 100's of Newspapers and Magazines around AMERICA.

"PHIL 4:13" proudly displayed hanging from my pants for the whole World to see.

What the World does not know is that at halftime of the game which we were trailing 13 to 0.

I went to head coach Larry Smith at halftime of the game and told him that if he wanted to win this game GOD wants you to throw #42 the ball.

I could not believe I had just said that to Coach Smith, he just looked at me and said, nothing, just a blank stare.

9 catches and the winning touchdown known as “The Catch”, Coach Smith got the message.

In the Words of the Legendary Sportscaster Keith Jackson:

“Peete to Affholter, No... Yes... They Call it Touch-down! Did he have it, if he did it was not for very long, he was juggling the ball did he grab it, they will be arguing about this Catch for Generations.”

Fans of the Trojans and Bruins remember “THE CATCH” as if it were yesterday.

GOD lifted me out of the fray and allowed #42 to make “THE CATCH” that day.

When a Miracle happens in your life and you know it, do others see the same Miracle?

Coach Smith and I knew it was a Miracle and he kept on throwing it my way.

“THE CATCH” catapulted #42 to 1st Team All American status in 1988 and a 4th round Draft Pick of the Green Bay Packers in 1989.

My Trojans opened our hearts and GOD transformed us from 100 misfits doing our own thing to 100 Trojans all together around the idea that GOD is who we play for now, not ourselves.

Your GOD and Your LOVE Go Together, GOD is the Origin of LOVE

THE MAGNIFICENT DANCE

The Magnificent Dance which is College Football, 22 Men engaged in a choreographed dance avoiding each other and slamming into each other all at the same moment.

One team holding the ball the other desperately trying to rip it away, snapping bones, tearing ligaments, gashes in your flesh, concussions, spitting out teeth, complete carnage, but beautiful and graceful and breathtaking this is The Magnificent Dance.

100,000 fans packed in a College Stadium the frequency in the stadium is electric you are literally vibrating the stadium is shaking.

There is nothing on Earth that rivals College Football with its glitz, glamour and indoctrination of the next generation.

The depth and precision of the performance is staggering to pull off.

The bands, cheerleaders, music, tailgating, food, beer, face painting, wearing your colors, seeing old friends and making new friends spawns a frequency of LOVE that surrounds the stadium creating a scene like no other on Earth.

College Football stadiums across AMERICA are all mixed across racial lines, this is what College is meant to be the great mixing bowl of AMERICAN society.

All colors, races and creeds taught to coexist in the melting pot we call AMERICA.

The miracle of College Football is that all races, creeds and colors cross boundaries that otherwise will not be crossed.

Socializing with all races, tailgating and fraternizing lost in the spectacle of College Football.

Students mixing, alumni mixing, fans mixing this is AMERICA at its finest moment a true depiction of what AMERICA is meant to be.

When two teams butt heads the sights and sounds of the game are horrific and magical this dichotomy is what makes The Magnificent Dance like nothing on Earth the energy created and spectacle are one of a kind.

Grown men wallow in defeat and are exuberant in victory the rivalries are intense.

Every school needs a rival the coaches use that against the boys to condition their minds.

A rival allows the players to train hard every day to stay engaged in all the lifting, running and studying just so we can beat our rival.

From the first day on campus the conditioning begins, your rivals will be posted on the walls of the weight room and locker room so they are always on your mind.

College Football players are soldiers for their schools conditioned to hate a rival.

Real warriors with referees to keep them from literally killing each other during the raw emotions of a game.

The young men who play College Football are renaissance men , the most athletic brightest young men in AMERICA.

The preparation for one game is staggering, the X's and O's are highly complex.

One play can have as many as 30 variables and there are over 150 plays in a game. Football playbooks are 6 inches thick with thousands of variables College Football players are pressed to remember.

One mistake can cost a players career, this game is measured in fractions of a second your mind and body have to be machine like to complete each play.

What makes men want to bash their heads into one another, fame, ego, money, a scholarship, mom, dad, friend's...? Whatever your motivation LOVE is the only thing that will get you through it.

If you do not LOVE this game, you will not survive long.

College Football brings fans, students, alumni, and their children together like nothing else in AMERICA the pageantry and LOVE for your school evoke emotions like nothing else on Earth.

You come ready to LOVE and high five your friends once again regardless of their skin color, creed, or religion its College Football let the LOVE flow.

You are in LOVE with yourself and your surroundings, you are at peace with yourself the LOVE frequency is now in charge and your fear slips away and your ego is left at the door.

We are all here to cheer for our team and our City relinquishing your racism your hate and your fear.

The Men who play College Football play out of LOVE; that is the only way to endure the pains and struggles of this game the pure LOVE and emotion you have for College Football.

Players can feel the energy from their alumni, their band, and their student body the adrenaline is flowing.

The players are in LOVE with the fans, the fans are in LOVE with the players, the energy swells and the LOVE begins known as The Magnificent Dance the greatest event in all of sports.

PART SEVEN

COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S
MOST TALENTED
GAME

Over the history of the rivalry between the Trojans and Bruins I will stake our claim that this game between the Trojans and Bruins in 1987 is the most talented game ever waged between the two City Rivals and plausibly the entire 150 years of College Football.

This historic match-up would produce 61 players drafted into the National Football League.

7 players drafted in the 1st round and 9 in the 2nd round.

Every Position Featured an All American or All PAC 10 Performer, producing over 500 years of NFL Experience.

UCLA featured 32 Iconic Bruins Drafted into the NFL: Troy Aikman, Ken Norton Jr, Carnell Lake, Flipper Anderson, Gaston Green, Mike Lodish, Eric Turner, Roman Phifer, Darrel Henley, Mel Farr, Eric Ball, Charles Arbuckle, Frank Cornish, Marvcus Patton, Paco Craig, James Primus, Dennis Price, James Washington, David Richards, Eric Smith, Marcus Turner, Jim Wahler, Kirk Maggio, Randy Austin, Ben Hummel, Kevin Smith, James Malone, Maury Toy, Matt Darby, Dion Lambert, Rocen Keeton, Scott Miller..

USC featured 29 Legendary Trojans Drafted into the NFL: Rodney Peete, Junior Seau, Erik Affholter, Mark Carrier, Tim Ryan, Pat Harlow, Dave Cadigan, Ricky Ervins, Gary Wellman, Mark Tucker, Don Gibson, Pat O'Hara, Scott

Ross, Dan Owens, Bill Schultz, Leroy Holt, Scott Galbraith, Aaron Emanuel, Brad Leggett, Ernest Spears, Chris Hale, Paul Green, Derrell Marshall, Marcus Cotton, Mazio Royster, Raoul Spears, Scott Lockwood, Calvin Holmes, Kurt Barber.

Both Teams had additional players who were not drafted and would still forge prosperous NFL careers.

Every position on the field had a future pro the margin for error was a razors edge and several players careers ended that day because of permanent injury.

This was real old school football, when taking out your opponent was part of the game. During the moment of a battle like this your eyes gloss over and your mind goes numb to the violence.

You know as a player your in the middle of a fight for your life, cheap shots and blows to the head where the norm.

The skill level in this game was so high because USC and UCLA had cornered the market on recruiting in California, whose population was exploding with kids from all over the World coming to Los Angeles to make a new home and life just like my family did.

UCLA or USC would not even consider a High School player unless you were an All American in the 80's both schools owned recruiting on the West Coast.

Between both rosters there were over 100 High School All Americans mostly from California. This was the hay day for recruiting at both USC and UCLA they had the pick of the most athletic litter on the planet.

Other schools would not even waste their time with these boys their fate was set, either you're going to play for the red the Trojan's or the blue the Bruin's.

Young men knew they were living in the mecca of College Football and the whole country watched you play every Saturday.

Iron sharpens iron and both teams skill level was off the charts because when you practice against future pros everyday you eventually raise yourself to that level just to survive.

Both teams practices were brutal every player wanted to be the starter and there were no handouts you had to earn your spot on the roster through fierce competition with your own teammates.

Daily fights and injuries were the norm there was no LOVE lost between teammates, we literally beat the shit out of each other everyday just to get a chance to play in a game like this.

Rodney & Troy are the faces of every Sports Magazine in America

Troy Aikman UCLA's quarterback had a special heat he could put on his throws nobody threw like he did at the time, Troy was also as tough as they come he could really take a hit.

Troy was the PAC 10 player of the Year and 1st Team All American in 1987 he was on point and his team was rolling under the direction of prominent head coach Terry Donahue.

The Future #1 pick in the NFL draft, Troy had no weaknesses and neither did his team. The Bruins came to win with NFL Draft Picks at every position making the Bruins overwhelming favorites to win this match-up.

Rodney Peete's star was rising fast AMERICA had fallen in LOVE with his running and throwing and his outgoing demeanor was intoxicating.

Rodney's football skills were unmatched at the time, Rodney could throw the ball through a tire from 50 yards and run like Usain Bolt.

Rodney ran down the fastest man on the Bruins team, Eric Turner to save a touchdown at the end of the 1st half that would have put the Trojan's down 20 to 0.

Rodney was selected as the PAC 10 Player of the year in 1988 and 1st Team All American.

Rodney brought a swagger to the game never seen before he was a generational player.

Neither Troy nor Rodney was giving an inch and both had their teammates and coaches focused ready to win. Rodney and Troy were as good looking as they come and the media capitalized on their energy.

Troy and Rodney were as famous as you could get at the time their faces were everywhere.

AMERICA was mesmerized by Rodney and Troy's magic on and off the field, both their personalities were magnetic and their competitive spirits ignited AMERICAS LOVE for College Football.

UCLA was ranked as High as #1 in 1987 they were going to win the National Championship no doubt all they had to do is beat the Trojans and win the Rose Bowl and it was theirs.

They could smell It, almost touch It and this was by far the most talented team UCLA has ever fielded this was Terry Donahue's big moment the stage was set.

My Trojans were ranked as high as #1 in 1988 our team was loaded with greatness, we were young and our new coach Larry Smith put us in position to upset UCLA in 1987 and go to the Rose Bowl ourselves.

This was a winner take all game with all of AMERICA

The Trojan's & Bruin's played real Old School Football

watching, the stakes were as big as they get in College Football a National Title on the line, a Rose Bowl birth and bragging rights in the City of Angels.

To a man nobody wanted to lose, and no man was giving in.

We would have played all day and night the energy in the stadium was unmatched, 100,000 fans on their feet the entire game intoxicated by the moment and another 150,000 fans cheering and screaming from outside the stadium the scene was epic.

From kick-off to the last play nobody wanted it to end, time just ran out and when it did the Trojans escaped with a narrow controversial victory going down to the final play.

This game deserves to be watched play by play I could fill 1000 pages with a description but I could never do the justice this game deserves.

If you LOVE old school football or if you've never watched a real OG game this is the game to watch, the players were raw, the rules were loose, bones were breaking and the emotions were real.

LOVE VS HATE

Einstein knew that Cellular Energy beams from all humans and matching your frequency to your reality is the pathway to great success.

Einstein spent his life teaching and expanding science opening the door for other scientists to further his work and his vision for humanity.

World renowned Cellular Biologist Bruce Lipton furthered Einstein's work by making a remarkable discovery about human cells.

Bruce Lipton's discovery was that human cells have emotion, human cells have feelings and they respond based on the frequencies of their surroundings.

Bruce Lipton's experiments involved taking human cells and then isolating them into separate petri dishes. He would then take the dishes and place them in very specific controlled environments.

Bruce would create LOVING environments and fearful environments and environments with both LOVE and hate.

He would speak negative words with negative emotions to some of the petri dishes and positive words with positive emotions to others.

What Bruce found is that human cells react to the frequencies we are generating inside our own bodies and the frequencies from everything around us.

Frequencies from other humans, the trees, the plants, the animals, every cell in every living creature and plant are vibrating either together in LOVE or in discord with fear.

College Stadiums are the moment in AMERICA when our collective cells are overtaken by LOVE and positive vibrations.

LOVE and fear are the two frequencies that every human cell responds to.

These two frequencies are coded into our cells we literally survive on these two emotions, the Yin and Yang that keeps us moving.

The Magnificent Dance and its raw emotion overtake us at a cellular level and We LOVE It.

College Football is AMERICAS moment to shine to the World captivating the minds of future students around the Globe with AMERICAS freedom of expression and colorful Skin.

LOVE is resonating back and forth like a tidal wave in a College Stadium, humans of all colors, creeds and races cheering, LOVING the moment because your cells are beaming with LOVE creating an abundance of energy.

#42 gets the stadium buzzing

Energy flows back and forth, fans to players, players to fans, fan to fan, the LOVE is flowing.

Your cells want LOVE, they like to be moving and excited and vibrating at 528 hertz the frequency of your heart and LOVE.

Human cells have emotion, each cell in your body is vibrating reacting to the environment around you.

Create a LOVING environment and perform LOVING actions this keeps your cells frequencies balanced and energetic creating positive vibrations to everyone around you.

Cells that live in fear and chaos keep your body chaotic and sick living in fear recoiling to survive.

It is imperative to stay in LOVE your cells can change everything around you.

Your home, your work, your team, you be the frequency that dominates the room whatever room you are in, you share the vision and the LOVE.

The College Football experience excites us at a cellular level freeing us from the bondage of race and color allowing us to see past those old ideas that once destroyed AMERICA.

If we can fill each house with the LOVE frequency AMERICA would begin to transform overnight, the changes would become obvious.

LOVE thyself and thy neighbor do GOOD DEEDS EVERY-DAY, your life will transform to a positive Ray of Light lifting the spirits of everyone around you.

Humans just want to give LOVE and to be LOVED back our cells like it this way.

The Cells in your body are your cells you have ownership of your cells, you decide what frequency you will feed them.

Each day we lose 20% of our cells within our bodies and new ones are made every night.

Your newborn cells need to copy either LOVE or fear whichever frequency is dominating your body.

Staying in LOVE will allow your new cells to be born into a frequency that promotes health and healing, creating cells that are vibrant, energetic, and free.

This process repeats itself every night and we need to focus on GOOD DEEDS they keep our heart LOVING and then our cells spread positive vibrations to everything around us.

Every day I lend a hand, lend a dollar, lend some food, lend some water, anything to make another humans day better. GOOD DEEDS become contagious and the chain of LOVE is started.

Stay in LOVE with yourself and nature first, then your LOVE will flow to every cell around you.

Your LIFE starts to bear fruit and miracles start to happen in your life

LOVE travels take it with you, share your LOVE with the others around you this is what humans are meant to do.

PART NINE

RACISM + EGO =
RACE
SEPARATION

Martin Luther King staked AMERICAS future on LOVE, not war, not hate, not darkness, but a RAY OF LIGHT he provided.

Martin Luther King reminded America that LOVE always was and always will be the answer to humanities future.

After 20 years of playing football and 25 years of coaching football I have witnessed how the orchestrated manipulation of AMERICAN Society causes RACE-SEPARATION between AMERICANS.

Racism, what is it?

Who started using this term, racism?

Why is racism so branded into the AMERICAN minds?

Does racism have to do with skin color?

Is racism really AMERICAS problem?

Breakdown the word Race-Ism...

The following is a quote from Googles definition of the words "RACE" and "ISM"

"RACE"- A competition between runners, horses, vehicles, boats, etc..., to see which is the fastest covering a SET COURSE.

"ISM"- A distinctive practice, system, or philosophy, typically a POLITICAL ideology.

Both words have a very specific meaning neither of which has to do with skin color.

Once you put the two words together to make a NEW WORD you have THE MOST DIVISIVE WORD EVER SPAWNED = RACISM.

AMERICA has had its POLITICAL and IDEALOGICAL COURSE set by the creation of the word racism.

The word racism was created purposely to pit all colors against each other under the fear of skin color.

AMERICANS are brainwashed that skin color is the reason for AMERICAS problems or your cities problems.

Racism is a word created in AMERICA to further separate and divide the races based on the color of one's skin.

“RACE-SEPARATION” is what “race-ism” really means.

RACE-SEPARATION called racism is the way humans are brainwashed through family and Hollywood.

Hollywood puppeteers makes sure RACE-SEPARATION is a continued topic in their nightly news, TV shows and movies.

Hollywood is controlled by imperialist who could shape

#42 Lights Up the Rose Bowl with 105,000 Fans

Erik Affholter coaching Youth Football

AMERICA anyway they please, either to tear us apart or pull us together.

I will use Shirley Temple as an example.

Shirley Temple seems so sweet and pure?

Well, that is the furthest thing from the truth Shirley Temple is one of the most racist shows every created by Hollywood.

Using young children to brainwash AMERICAN society, White kids could sing and dance while the Black kids played in diapers and were forced to act like monkeys in films like “Kin of Africa”.

TV shows like All in the Family with Archie Bunker continued the racist dialogue which further separated AMERICANS.

Outlandish demented ideas branded into the brains of AMERICANS.

This type of Hollywood brainwashing was always in play and they continue it today.

RACE-SEPARATION in AMERICA runs deep, AMERICANS have been separated into Black communities, Latino communities and White communities.

The common thread between all humanity is not racism because that is just a word created to promote RACE-SEPARATION in AMERICA used to control the people.

The Common thread is the Ego.

Ego chooses fear over LOVE.

Ego sees color.

Ego sees hate.

Ego sees greed.

Ego causes war and destruction.

Consider the Vikings, Native Americans or African cultures of 1000 years ago, they had the exact same skin color, hair color and eye color.

These ancient tribes were literally Brothers and Sisters who shared the same skin color. Eventually as time passes they all started fighting themselves, Why?

Why would a culture fight themselves killing their own Brothers and Sisters?

It was not because of skin color considering they all had the same color skin, hair, and eyes.

Racism was not even an idea back then, but cultures found ways to fight and kill each other not because of different skin color, but because of Ego.

1988 KODAK All American Team featuring
Barry Sanders, Deion Sanders, Rodney Peete, Erik Affholter

Ego wants your river, ego wants your farmland, ego wants your hunting territory, ego wants your minerals, rather than sharing these riches ego will just take them from you by force.

These are ego driven decisions, not race based decisions.

We all get along for the betterment of our team or school or job, we are forced to check our ego at the door for these tasks.

When we go home do not change, stay cool, stay in LOVE, do not let your surroundings at home change us.

You be the positive vibration in your home, spread your light, raise your family and friends up to your level.

HOME by HOME we can spread LIGHT and LOVE and move AMERICA to a pedestal as a shining example for the World to copy.

PART TEN

ONE LOVE...
ONE HEART

The Poet Bob Marley blessed this Earth with a beautiful idea; “ONE LOVE...ONE HEART, Let’s Get Together and Be All Right”

Bob Marley the fan LOVES futbol, he was a fan of the game and of those who played it.

Bob Marley the musician has billions of fans still cheering him today and I am sure he is cheering for us humanity to hear his message.

Bob Marley is a fan of humanity; Karl and I became fans of humanity through sports. We LOVE to watch all sports, the emotion and energy the human spirit provides during sport is unique to itself.

120 volts of usable energy radiating from each fan down to the performers who give that energy right back to the fans through the performance.

A back and forth release of LOVE which creates the euphoria you feel as a fan cheering for your team, sharing your LOVE with all races and all colors.

Racism, fear, and hate are put to the side for the LOVE of your team.

Fans provide the energy for the performers to perform. Human performance is thrilling to watch, it makes us free and youthful once again cheering and applauding spreading the LOVE frequency acting as a child with no cares in the World.

Children are born pure and free from the ego that produces fear, hate, and racism. Fear, hate and racism these are learned behaviors taught by the ones that raise us.

Humans were created to LOVE and to be LOVED back.

College Football shows us we can all get along as one human species regardless of skin color.

We have the capacity to override brainwashing about race and color and the fear and hate we should exercise because of skin color.

There is no color in College Football we are all a blended pallet of colors that make our skin, hair, and eyes look different on the outside but behind the skin and eyes we're all the same.

College Football players and its fans create a bond of LOVE unlike any other on Earth.

Our collective LOVE can rewrite history, let the history books say it was our generation and our LOVE that changed the course of this Earth to its intended purpose a Garden of Eden.

We can respect each other and our own ideas of the World, but one idea must be the central act we all carry out every second of each day with the words we speak and actions we take towards each other.

Speak positive words to those around you and carry out GOOD DEEDS make LOVE not war.

It is easier to LOVE than to hate.

Our Human instinct is to LOVE.

Life is not a competition; life is a journey meant to be taken slowly and absorb the beauty around us.

Nature, sports, music, art, and each other the dance of life beating together as ONE LOVE ONE HEART.

Mother Nature is a game and we all participate in it everyday, what we take and give everyday from nature and each other matters.

Today humans are living in fear and race bondage their energy is being bound in a ball not flowing to the next human.

When fans are packed in a College Stadium the LOVE is flowing, fear goes away, race goes away, our energy is free flowing nothing matters but the LOVE.

LOVE is a wave of energy great teams know how to ride bringing home the victory.

Love and Light can drown out the darkness, LOVE and Light will Win.

It is up to you to share your LOVE with those around you.

LOVE thy neighbor as thyself it is a simple idea, but it is the fundamental idea of LOVE and Change.

The light of our Earth can be Turned On as quick as it was turned off

Together OUR LOVE CAN CHANGE THE WORLD let OUR GENERATION be the Generation the WORLD never forgets for the LOVE we spread upon the Earth.
