KYLE A. FLOHRE

Kyle A. Flohre is currently the Band Director at Colonial Heights Middle School. He received his Bachelor of Music from James Madison University and Masters in Music Education at Virginia Commonwealth University.

Mr. Flohre was the Director of Bands at Colonial Heights High School from 2002-2022. Under the direction of Mr. Flohre, the ensembles at Colonial Heights High School consistently received superior ratings at Marching and Concert Assessments. Colonial Heights High School is a twenty-one time "Virginia Honor Band," with seventeen of those coming under Mr. Flohre's tenure. In 2008, Mr. Flohre was recognized by his peers and received the Colonial Heights High School "Teacher of the Year" award.

Mr. Flohre's professional affiliations include: NAFME, VMEA, VBODA, and Kappa Kappa Psi, and Phi Beta Mu International Bandmaster's Fraternity. He served as the District III VBODA representative and has been honored to judge at various marching band and VBODA Concert Assessments. Mr. Flohre and his wife Jennifer spend their free time trying to keep up with their energetic daughters - Emma, Lily, & Sophie.

MICHAEL AUMAN

Michael Auman is a Richmond, Virginia native who currently serves as the Director/Conductor of 3 bands at The Center of Belvedere in Charlottesville, Virginia. He was previously the Head Drumline Instructor at The University of Virginia in 2021. He started drumming at a very young age and has not stopped. His mother, Ruth Auman and his late father, Leon Auman, are respected music educators in The Commonwealth of Virginia and helped mold his talents at an early age. Mr. Auman was a Front Ensemble member of The Crossmen Drum and Bugle Corps in the early 2000's. After aging out, he took on such duties as wind and percussion arranger, drill writer, and most notably, The Director of Percussion at Mills E. Godwin High School in Henrico, Virginia from 2004-2021 and maintained a private studio of 30+ students a year during his time there. Michael has also been a member of The Richmond Philharmonic, Charlottesville Symphony, The Albemarle Symphony Orchestra, The Derbyshire Baptist Church Orchestra under Mr. David Schwoebel, The Richmond Pops Band under Mr. Joe Simpkins, The Cedar Creek Concert Band in Nashville, Tennessee under Mrs. Sherie Grossman, The Commonwealth Winds under Dr. Terry Austin, and performed the percussion book for two Broadway Shows at The Fringe Festival in Edinburgh, Scotland. When Michael is not playing music or teaching, he is competing in triathlons with his wife, Liz, training for a Half Ironman in 2023, making a fine cup of coffee, or snuggled on the couch with his dog Theodore and giant Flemish Rabbit, Violet.

DR. JARAUN RANSOME

Dr. Jaraun Ransome holds a Doctor of Education in Educational Leadership and Policy Studies from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, a Master of Arts in School Principalship from Central Michigan University, and a Bachelor of Music in Music Education from East Carolina University. Dr. Ransome was a director of bands in North Carolina and Virginia. Under his leadership the concert bands, marching bands, and jazz ensembles were consistent recipients of local, regional, national, and international honors, including the VBODA Honor Band Award, the VMEA Blue Ribbon Award, and the New Year's Day Parade in London, England. Dr. Ransome is a past member of the teaching faculty of the DCI World Finalist Blue Stars Drum and Bugle Corps. His professional affiliations include the American Educational Research Association (AERA), Association of Positive Behavioral Supports (APBS), Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD), the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity, the National Association of Music Educators (NAfME), and the Virginia Band Directors and Orchestra Directors Association (VBODA), and alumnus of Carolina Crown Drum and Bugle Corps. Dr. Ransome is the recipient of the 2015 Exemplary Professional School Counseling Advocate of Hampton Roads Award and the recipient of the Zeta Lambda Chapter's 2016 Alpha Phi Alpha Community Service Award. Dr. Ransome currently serves as the Program Administrator for Student Conduct and Discipline in the Office of the Chief of Staff in the Newport News Public School system. Dr. Ransome resides in Richmond, Virginia with his wife Stephanie and daughters Jada and Jenna.

TOMMY DANIELS

Tommy Daniels is the former Director of Bands at King George High School in King George, Virginia where he spent 8 years. Under the direction of Mr. Daniels, the ensembles at King George High School consistently received superior ratings at Virginia State Marching and Concert assessments. He led the band program to be recognized as a "Virginia Honor Band" every year during his tenure. In 2016, he was selected to participate in the U.S. Army All-American Marching Band Directors Academy. His professional affiliations include: NAfME, VMEA, and VBODA. Mr. Daniels resides in Fredericksburg, Virginia with his incredibly supportive and beautiful wife Natalie, their dog Gunner, and their two cats Kiki and Marla.

DUANE COSTON

Duane Coston serves on the faculty at Virginia Commonwealth University where he conducts the Wind Ensemble and University Band. Professor Coston also teaches courses in music education

Mr. Coston has been active in secondary and higher education for 18 years.

Ensembles under his direction have been recognized for outstanding quality and professionalism. In 2009, Mr. Coston had the honor of performing at the Virginia Music Educators Association conference with the Lee-Davis Wind Ensemble. Mr. Coston was a semi-finalist at the Leonard Falcone International Euphonium Soloist Competition in 1995.

Duane Coston has served as guest conductor for the Hanover County High School Honors Band, Henrico Middle School Honors Band, and Henrico High School Honors Band. He has served as a guest speaker at the University of Florida and has served as a clinician and adjudicator across the Commonwealth of Virginia. Mr. Coston has been recognized as a “10 Year Virginia Honor Band Director” and has received the “Citation of Excellence” from the National Band Association.

Duane Coston completed his Bachelor of Music Education Degree at Virginia Commonwealth University and his Master of Music from James Madison University where he studied Euphonium Performance with Kevin Stees.
