

Founded in 2002, owner and lead singer, Justin Crank from Mansfield, Ohio formed the GloryWay Quartet. With a vision in mind and a dream that would become reality, his love for four-part harmony would inevitably come full circle. Justin believed that God would open a door, and with faith he would walk right through. Now, it is 2018, and GloryWay has signed with Capitol Artists, a prestigious booking agency in the world of Southern Gospel entertainment. GloryWay has signed with Butler Music Group, an agency that is well-known and highly respected in the Gospel music arena. Travelling nearly 65,000 miles nationwide annually, the group books dates sometimes a year or more in advance. The group is no stranger to nationwide radio, with current, popular releases such as "Trading a Cross for a Crown" and their latest single "He Took It Away". GloryWay has participated in numerous NQC showcases through the years. In 2017 and 2018 they were nominated for SGN Scoops Diamond Awards "Sunrise Quartet of the Year" and in 2018, won the award in that category. They were also the showcase winners of the 2016 American Gospel Celebration hosted by Pastor John Hagee.

GloryWay has shared the stage with many of the top names in Gospel music. They have headlined and helped launch landmark fundraisers, such as Autism Awareness and Celebrating our US Veterans. GloryWay has had the honor of being guests on the nationally syndicated radio program "Paul Heil and the Gospel Greats" and they've also presented their ministry at the Thomas Road Baptist Church in Lynchburg, Virginia. The group performed at the Columbus Clippers Baseball Faith and Family Night. The group has recorded several projects to date, including a Christmas CD.

The group consists of lead singer, Justin Crank, tenor Brian Langley, baritone John Cole, and fan-favorite bass, Justin Sayger. GloryWay continually boasts a lineup with seasoned ability that will impress even the least of Gospel music fans. GloryWay is quickly becoming a household name among industry leaders. They have a heart for the lost, integrity to go the extra mile and talent without limitation to share with all who listen.
