All of the chickens
are in the kitchen
fixing themselves some pie.

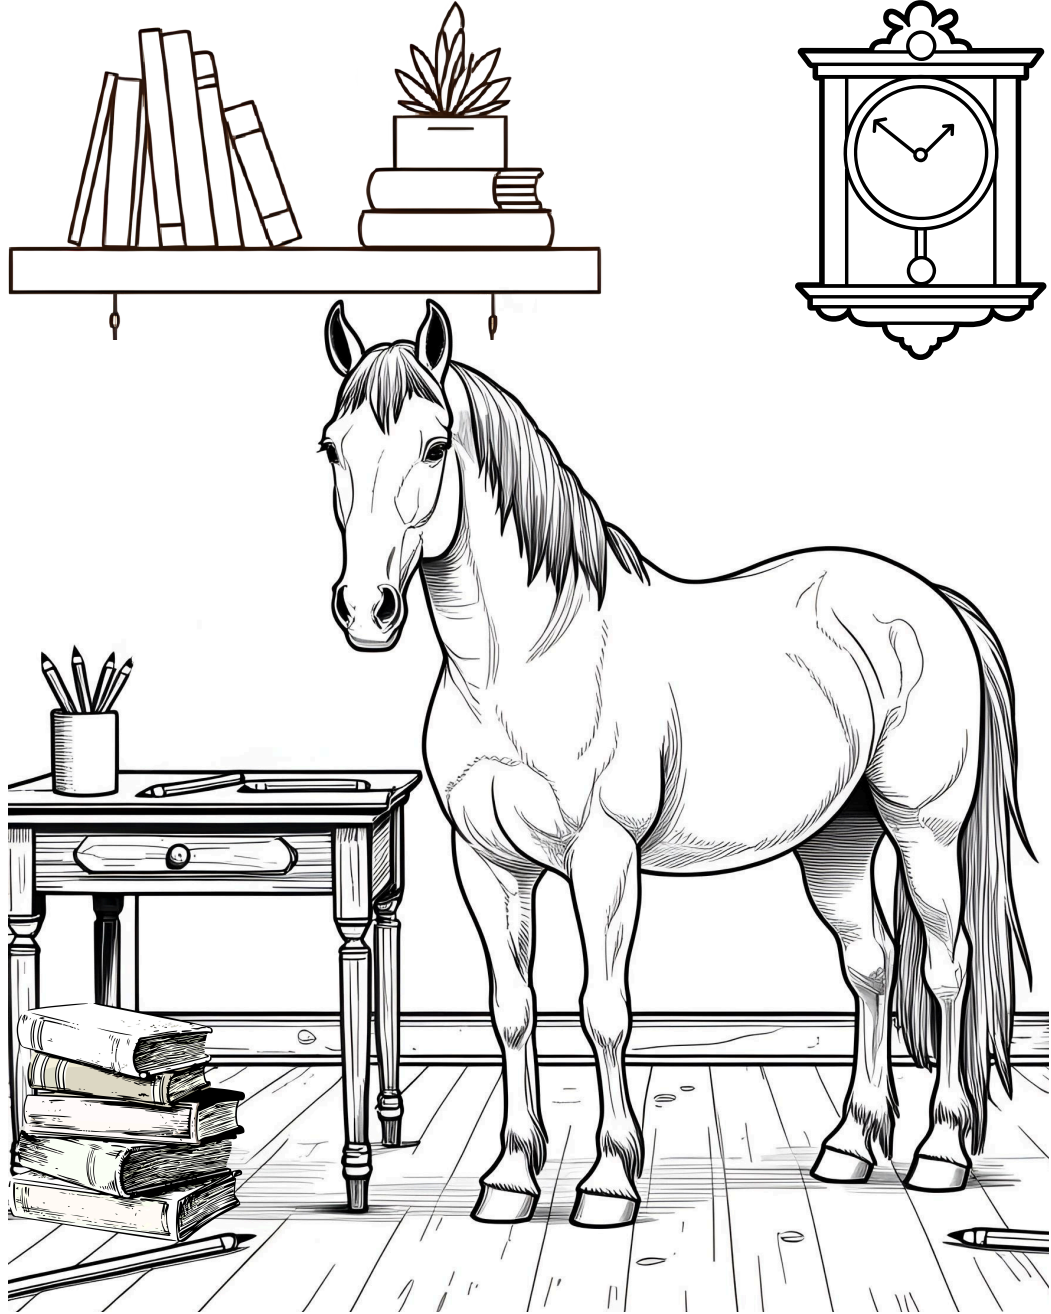

There's a pig in my bed, and I don't know why. When I tell him to go back into the sty, he just looks at me and says "Why oh why should I?"

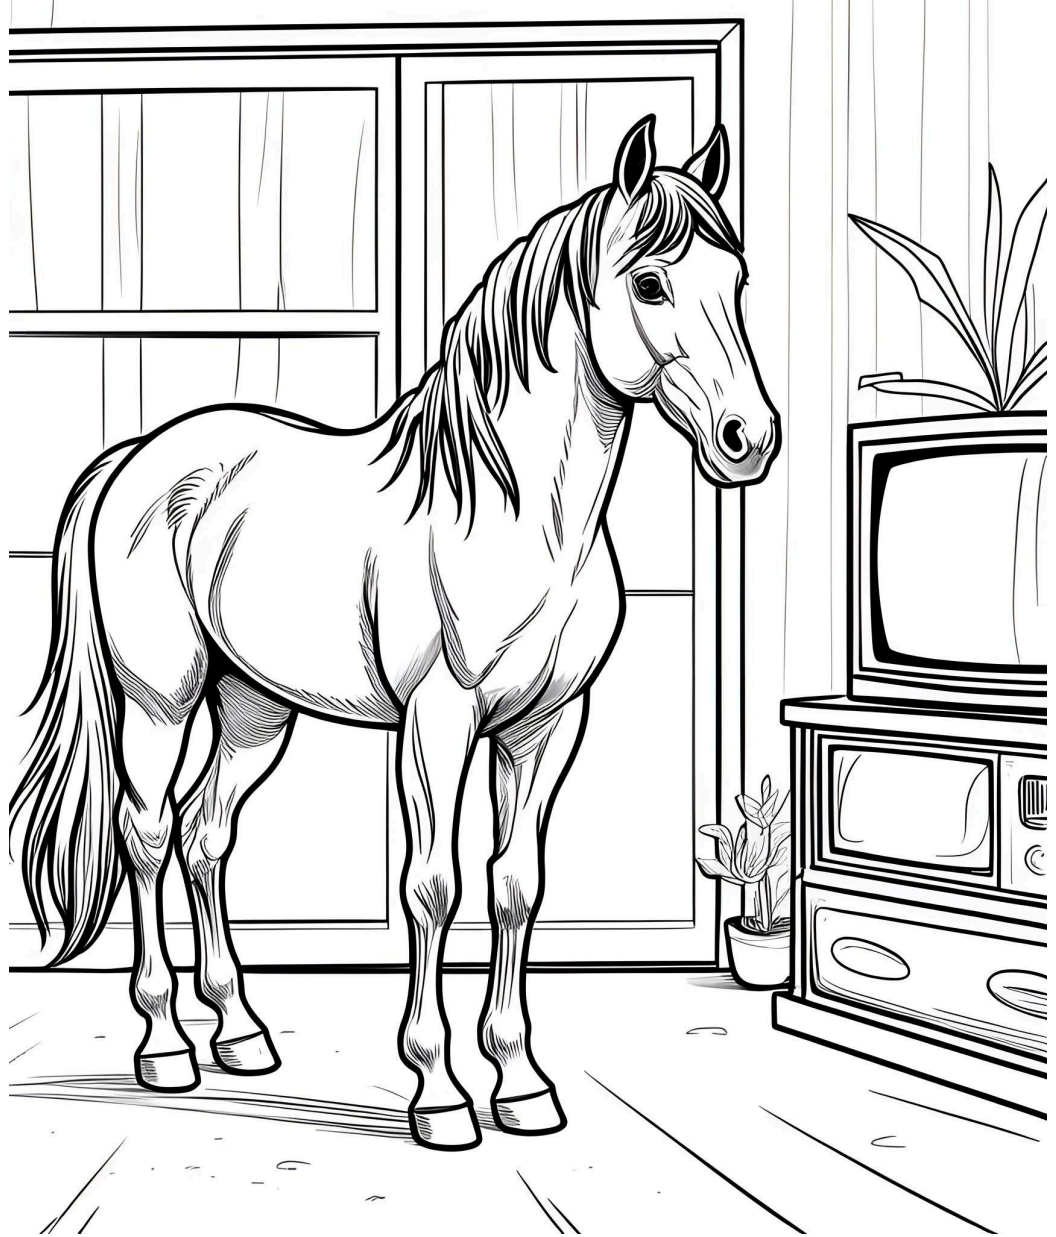

All of the sheep are in the mud room, drinking my maple syrup.

There's a horse at my desk,
eating my pencils up!

When I tell him to go back into the stable, he just looks at me and says, "What's on cable?"

So I say, "Chickens!
Close the front door,
this ain't no barn!"

“Pigs! Get out of my bed!
I won’t fall for your charm.”

Sheep, show some respect,
This Is MY farm!"

Now my bed is made of hay, and I'm eating oats.

I am washing in the pond...
