Ketone Partners LLC (Ketone) is thrilled to welcome Logisyn Advisors, a top-tier mergers and acquisitions advisory firm specializing in the global logistics sector, to The Exchange at 44 Vail (The Exchange), located in the thriving downtown business and entertainment district of Arlington Heights.

Logisyn Advisors is committed to helping business owners in the logistics arena grow through acquisition or maximize their value in a financial exit. The company serves both domestic and international logistics companies searching for a strategic partner, as well as advising global corporations looking to expand their footprint.

“We are delighted to join the vibrant community at The Exchange at 44 Vail,” said Cris Arens, Managing Partner at Logisyn Advisors. “This beautiful building is centrally located and provides the perfect space to host our client meetings. Additionally, our team loves the convenience of working in a peaceful and professional environment.”

The Exchange at 44 Vail offers prime opportunities for businesses to establish their retail and office presence in the heart of downtown Arlington Heights. The building is conveniently located with access to the Metra Northwest Train Station (1.5 blocks North) and nearby Interstate I-90 and Highway 53, ample public parking, and a dynamic community with 46 restaurants within walking distance.
