About

LINDA HANNAH

As a former hat designer, Linda has interacted with clients from all walks of life, inspiring and encouraging them through their unique stories. Naturally gifted at motivating others, she uses hats as powerful metaphors for the different mindsets we "wear" in life. Linda empowers audiences to shift from limiting thoughts to transformative ones, reminding them that retreating is not an option—we must move forward!

Her engaging, entertaining, and thought-provoking talks inspire individuals to embrace their brilliance and become their best selves. Linda's signature presentations include Hat Moments—a captivating exploration of the evolution of hats and their historical impact.

A District 28 Division D Toastmasters Speech Contest Champion, Linda is the author of The Hat Chronicles: Scripture-Powered Insights to Embrace Every Role You Wear and a contributing writer for A Widow's Resilience.
