About

LINDA HANNAH

As a former hat designer, Linda has interacted with clients from all walks of life, inspiring and encouraging them through their unique stories. Naturally gifted at motivating others, she uses hats as powerful metaphors for the different mindsets we "wear" in life. Linda empowers audiences to shift from limiting thoughts to transformative ones, reminding them that retreating is not an option—we must move forward!

Her engaging, entertaining, and thought-provoking talks inspire individuals to embrace their brilliance and become their best selves. Linda's signature presentations include Hat Moments—a captivating exploration of the evolution of hats and their historical impact.

A District 28 Division D Toastmasters Speech Contest Champion, Linda is the author of The Hat Chronicles: Scripture-Powered Insights to Embrace Every Role You Wear and a contributing writer for A Widow's Resilience.

Signature Presentations

Hats Off to Your Brilliance: Confidence, Purpose & Resilience

In this empowering talk, Linda uses hats as metaphors to illustrate how women embrace their brilliance, cultivate unshakable confidence, and walk boldly in their purpose. Through personal stories, historical insights, and practical mindset shifts, she guides audiences from limiting thoughts to transformative ones — equipping women to show up with clarity, courage, and lasting resilience.

Hat Moments: A Dynamic Journey Through the Evolution of Hats and Their Historical Impact

Linda brings an admired segment of fashion history to life—hats! Through captivating storytelling and vintage hat displays, she enlightens, educates, and entertains audiences while fostering a deeper appreciation for cultural history and lifelong learning.
