

Play Today Waiver

I am agreeing to participate, or have my child participate, in an activity known as "The Arena" where individuals fire Nerf weapons at each other in an area with certain obstacles and barriers. Although serious injury can occur in many forms, the three greatest injury potentials associated with this activity are eye injuries, slipping and falling, or running into another participant. All participants are given eye protection and specifically instructed that at no time is the eye protection to be removed within the facility. There are numerous signs throughout the facility specifically directing that all participants must have eye protection on at all times and all participants must adhere to the written rules posted at the facility. The activity is also monitored by an employee of Play Today to ensure the participants are following the written rules openly posted at the facility. I, the undersigned participant or parent/legal guardian of a minor if the participant is under the age of 18, acknowledge and fully understand that I or the minor participant will be engaging in activities that involve risk of serious injury. I hereby agree to follow all oral instruction and written rules at all times. In the case of minor participants, I will ensure that any minor children accompanying me follow all oral instruction and written rules at all times. If I am giving consent to my minor and if I am not there, I will make sure my minor child is instructed to follow all oral instruction and written rules at all times. With regard to any injury occurring on the property, I hereby release and discharge Play Today from all legal liability. This release includes Play Today, its directors, officers, employees, agents, and the owners/lessors of premises used to conduct the event. Any parent signing for a minor child hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Play Today, its directors, officers, employees, agents, and the owners/lessors of premises used to conduct the event from any claims by a non-signing parent/legal guardian. I agree to hold harmless and indemnify Play Today from all legal liability, claims, damages, or injury which may result from activities on the premises, including the actions of other participants. I have read this Release of Liability document and agree to its terms and conditions.
